Alison Weber

Discourses Of Empire Counter Epic Literature In Early Modern Spain:

Discourses of Empire Barbara Simerka, 2003 Rhetoric and Reality in Early Modern Spain Richard Pym, 2006 Early modern Spain's insistent rhetorics of nation and kingship of a monolithic body of shared values and beliefs especially in respect of racial and gender stereotypes and of a centralized and ostensibly absolutist legislative apparatus did not map unproblematically onto the complex topography of everyday life This volume explores the extent to which these rhetorics and the ideology they helped to construct or underpin reflected or failed to reflect the realities of social economic and cultural life It sets against their typically exorbitant claims the lived messy and sometimes contradictory experience of Spaniards across a broad social spectrum both at the centre and at the margins not just of peninsular society but of the Hispanic world overseas Confronting ideology were questions of economic pragmatism executive feasibility jurisdictional competence and above all the social and political complexity of the Spain of the period Contributors TREVOR J DADSON MARGARET RICH GREER BARRY IFE ALISTAIR MALCOLM MELVEENA MCKENDRICK RICHARD J PYM HELEN RAWLINGS ALEXANDER SAMSON JULES WHICKER RICHARD J PYM is Senior Lecturer in Hispanic Studies at Royal Holloway University of London

Discourses of Decline, 2022-01-17 This volume explores the relevance of decline within the republican tradition While scholarship on republicanism thrives the idea of decline which has been prominent in republican theory since antiquity has received relatively little attention The essays in this volume take a broad cultural perspective and study a wide variety of authors and contexts to situate decline among the key concepts in the history of republicanism Most contributions focus on the Dutch Republic during the Age of Enlightenment and Revolutions the area of expertise of Wyger Velema to whom this volume is dedicated Other case studies include early modern Spain and Venice the German Enlightenment and the Weimar Republic Contributors are Remieg Aerts Hans Erich B deker Wiep van Bunge Lisa Kattenberg Wessel Krul Matthijs Lok Alessandro Metlica Ida Nijenhuis Ele de la Porte Jan Rotmans Niek van Sas Freya Sierhuis and Lina Weber The Ambivalence of Imperial Discourse Aaron M. Kahn, 2008 A new reading of Miguel de Cervantes play La Destrucción de Numancia c 1583 analysing the work in relation to theories of empire in 16th century Spain in the context of plays written immediately before the rise in popularity of Lope de Vega and the comedia nueva and the playwright's innovative use of dramatic techniques Signs of Power in Habsburg Spain and the New World Jason McCloskey, Ignacio López

Alemany, 2013-03-22 Signs of Power in Habsburg Spain and the New World explores the representation of political economic military religious and juridical power in texts and artifacts from early modern Spain and her American viceroyalties In addition to analyzing the dynamics of power in written texts chapters also examine pieces of material culture including coats of arms coins paintings and engravings As the essays demonstrate many of these objects work to transform the amorphous concept of power into a material reality with considerable symbolic dimensions subject to and dependent on interpretation With its broad approach to the discourses of power Signs of Power brings together studies of both canonical literary works as well as more obscure texts and objects The position of the works studied with respect to the official center of power also varies Whereas certain essays focus on the ways in which portrayals of power champion the aspirations of the Spanish Crown other essays attend to voices of dissent that effectively call into question that authority Space, Drama, and Empire

Javier Lorenzo, 2023-09-15 Spanish poet playwright and novelist Félix Lope de Vega 1562-1635 was a key figure of Golden Age Spanish literature second only in stature to Cervantes and is considered the founder of Spain's classical theater In this rich and informative study Javier Lorenzo investigates the symbolic use of space in Lope's drama and its function as an ideological tool to promote an imagined Spanish national past In specific plays this book argues historical landscapes and settings were used to foretell and legitimize the imperial present in Hapsburg Spain allowing audiences to visualize and plot as on a map the country's expansionist trajectory throughout the centuries By focusing on connections among space drama and empire this book makes an important contribution to the study of literature and imperialism in early modern Spain and equally to our understanding of the role and political significance of spatiality in Siglo de Oro comedia An Eye on Race John Beusterien, 2006 Racism in the modern nation state is based on a Continental and an American model In the Continental model the racist differentiates the raced individual by religion Because this raced individual is indistinguishable from the racist a narrative is written to see that individual In turn in the American model the racist differentiates the raced individual based on skin color Because the sign of difference is obvious no story is written to justify racist thinking By 1550 both models form part of imperial thinking in the Iberian world system An Eye on Race Perspectives from Theater in Imperial Spain describes these models at work in imperial Spanish theater The study reveals how the display of blood in drama serves the Continental model and how the display of skin color serves the American model It also elucidates how Miguel de Cervantes celebrates a subaltern aesthetic as he discards both racial paradigms John Beusterien is Associate Professor of Spanish at Texas Tech University The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 2004 Bulletin of the Society for Renaissance Studies, 2002 Arizona Journal of Hispanic Cultural Studies, 2004 The Virginia Quarterly Review, 2004

The Other Virgil Craig Kallendorf, 2007-10-18 The story of how the Aeneid has been approached by various postclassical authors including Shakespeare and Milton not as an endorsement of the ideals of their societies but as a model for poems that probed and challenged dominant values just as Virgil himself had done centuries before Approaches to Teaching Teresa of Ávila and the Spanish Mystics Alison Weber, 2009-01-01 The writings of Teresa of Ávila and the Spanish mystics most notably John of the Cross and Luis de León aroused passionate responses when they were composed Though today's students realize that religious beliefs have wide-ranging consequences they are presented with particular challenges in studying the Spanish mystics because of their unfamiliarity with the linguistic social and religious history of early modern Spain This volume is designed to help instructors elicit students' curiosity sympathy and appreciation for writings that can at first seem alien or confusing Part 1 Materials recommends accessible editions and translations print electronic and visual resources background and critical studies and sources on the philosophical and theological responses to the Spanish mystics Part 2 Approaches presents methods for teaching the historical contexts of and various theoretical perspectives on the mystics works Contributors consider these authors in relation to Islamic and Jewish mysticism the traditions of women s writing feminism theology and autobiography They also recommend ways to teach particular texts in different kinds of courses and institutions British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal and Spain ,2003 Calíope ,2003

Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2004 The Indian Militia and

Description of the Indies Bernardo de Vargas Machuca,2008-11-19 Translation of this late 16th century text recently termed the first manual of guerrilla warfare ever published will contribute to a deeper understanding of the history of Spanish colonization and of the history of science and medicine Europæ Descriptio Rubén Darío Builes,2008 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Tilting Cervantes Bruce R. Burningham,2008 Tilting Cervantes examines several contemporary texts Fight Club Brazil The Matrix and The Moor s Last Sigh among others by reflecting them against a cluster of early modern Spanish and Latin American literary works principally Don Quixote Through a deliberate juxtaposition of these cross cultural and cross epochal texts this book explores the notion that each of these varied cultural products can be read in a very Borgesian manner as precursors to each other especially for contemporary readers who may not come to them in their proper chronological order At the same time and within this larger juxtaposition this book examines the interrelated baroque and postmodern preoccupation with mirrors and self reflexivity and thus argues that many postmodern writers and performers do not so much break new ground as simply rediscover terrain already explored by such baroque literary figures as Cervantes Lope de Vega Francisco de Quevedo and Sor Juana Ines de la Cruz
