Disaster, Conflict and Society in Crises Dorothea Hilhorst, 2013-07-18 Humanitarian crises resulting from conflict natural disaster or political collapse are usually perceived as a complete break from normality spurring special emergency policies and interventions In reality there are many continuities and discontinuities between crisis and normality What does this mean for our understanding of politics aid and local institutions during crises This book examines this question from a sociological perspective This book provides a qualitative inquiry into the social and political dynamics of local institutional response international policy and aid interventions in crises caused by conflict or natural disaster Emphasising the importance of everyday practices this book qualitatively unravels the social and political working of policies aid programmes and local institutions The first part of the book deals with the social life of politics in crisis Some of the questions raised are What is the meaning of human security in practice How do governments and other actors use crises to securitize and hence depoliticize their strategies The second part of the book deals with the question how local institutions fare under and transform in response to crises Conflicts and disasters are breakpoints of social order with a considerable degree of chaos and disruption but they are also marked by processes of continuity and re ordering or the creation of new institutions and linkages This part of the book focuses on institutions varying from inter ethnic marriage patterns in Sri Lanka to situation of institutional multiplicity in Angola The final part of the book concerns the social and political realities of different domains of interventions in crisis including humanitarian aid peace building disaster risk reduction and safety nets to address chronic food crises This book gives students and researchers in humanitarian studies disaster studies conflict and peace studies as well as humanitarian and military practitioners an invaluable wealth of case studies and unique political science analysis of the humanitarian studies field

Genocide and Mass Atrocities in Asia Deborah Mayersen, Annie Pohlman, 2013-06-03 The twentieth century has been labelled the century of genocide and according to estimates more than 250 million civilians were victims of genocide and mass atrocities during this period This book provides one of the first regional perspectives on mass atrocities in Asia by exploring the issue through two central themes Bringing together experts in genocide studies and area specialists the book looks at the legacy of past genocides and mass atrocities with case studies on East Timor Cambodia and Indonesia It explores the enduring legacies of trauma and societal divisions the complex and continuing impacts of past mass violence and the role of transitional justice in the aftermath of mass atrocities in Asia Understanding these complex legacies is crucial for the region to build a future that acknowledges the past The book goes on to consider the prospects and challenges for preventing future mass atrocities in Asia and globally It discusses both regional and global factors that may impact on preventing future mass atrocities in Asia and highlights the value of a regional perspective in mass atrocity prevention Providing a detailed examination of genocide and mass atrocities through the themes of legacies and prevention the book is an important contribution to Asian Studies and Security Studies The Oxford Handbook on Atrocity Crimes Barbora Holá,Hollie Nyseth Nzititira,Hollie Nyseth Brehm,Maartje Weerdesteijn,2022 The Oxford Handbook on Atrocity Crimes surveys and further develops the evolving field of atrocity crime studies through interdisciplinary research on war crimes crimes against humanity and genocide in one comprehensive volume encompassing contributions of leading scholars

The Kurdish National Movement in Turkey Cengiz Gunes,2013-01-11 This book provides an interpretive and critical analysis of Kurdish identity nationalism and national movement in Turkey since the 1960s By raising issues and questions relating to Kurdish political identity and highlighting the ideological specificity diversity and the transformation of Kurdish nationalism it develops a new empirical dimension to the study of the Kurds in Turkey Cengiz Gunes applies an innovative theoretical approach to the analysis of an impressively large volume of primary sources and data drawn from books and magazines published by Kurdish activists political parties and groups The analysis focuses on the specific demands articulated by the Kurdish national movement and looks at Kurdish nationalism at a specific level by disaggregating the nationalist discourse showing variations over time and across different Kurdish nationalist organisations Situating contemporary Kurdish political identity and its political manifestations within a historical framework the author examines the historical and structural conditions that gave rise to it and influenced its evolution since the 1960s The analysis also encompasses an account of the organisational growth and evolution of the Kurdish national movement including the political parties and groups that were active in the period Bringing the study of the organisational development and growth of the Kurdish National Movement in Turkey up to date this book will be an important reference for students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics social movements nationalism and conflict

Critical Methods in Terrorism Studies Priya Dixit,Jacob L. Stump,2015-06-26 This book shows how to use a range of critical approaches to conduct research on terrorism Featuring the work of researchers who have already utilized these methods to study terrorism it includes a diverse range of critical methodological approaches including discourse analysis feminist postcolonial ethnographic critical theory and visual analysis of terrorism The main objectives of the book are to assist researchers in adopting and applying various critical approaches to the study of terrorism This goal is achieved by bringing together a number of different scholars working on the topic of terrorism from a range of non variables based approaches Their individual chapters discuss explicitly the research methods used and methodological commitments made by the authors while also illustrating the application of their particular critical perspective to the topic of terrorism The authors of each chapter will discuss 1 why they chose their specific critical method

2 how they justified their methodological stance 3 how they conduct their research 4 and finally an example of the research This book will be essential reading for students of terrorism studies and critical terrorism studies and highly recommended for students of political violence security studies and IR

Global Conflict Resolution Through Positioning Analysis Fathali M. Moghaddam, Rom Harré, Naomi Lee, 2007-11-15 Positioning theory is the study of the nature formation influence and ways of change of local systems of rights and duties as shared assumptions about them influence small scale interactions Evolving from linguistics origins the theory concerns conventions of speech and action that are labile contestable and ephemeral With this theory researchers are able to examine the dynamic flow of social interaction as well as give equal weight to the role of discourse and the psychological resolution of conflict This volume applies positioning theory in order to achieve a fuller and more in depth understanding of conflict and its psychological resolution The editors approach positioning from the micro interpersonal level all the way to the macro intergroup and international level

Gender Dynamics and Post-conflict Reconstruction Christine Eifler, Ruth Seifert, 2009 This volume by international authors deals with the role of gender dynamics in the development of post conflict societies The authors describe and analyze diverse aspects of the intertwining of gender and other social and cultural relations from an interdisciplinary perspective They analyze gendered post conflict dynamics in diverse contexts asking for the consequences these developments have in the settings under investigation such as Eastern and Southeastern Europe Palestine and Afghanistan

Cyprus and its Conflicts Vaia Doudaki, Nico Carpentier, 2017-11-01 The Mediterranean island of Cyprus is the site of enduring political military and economic conflict This interdisciplinary collection takes Cyprus as a geographical cultural and political point of reference for understanding how conflict is mediated represented reconstructed experienced and transformed Through methodologically diverse case studies of a wide range of topics including public art urban spaces and print broadcast and digital media it assembles an impressively multifaceted perspective one that provides broad insights into the complex interplay of culture conflict and identity

Regional Intervention Politics in Africa Stefanie Wodrig, 2017-02-24 This book analyses regional interventions in African conflict spaces by engaging with political discourse theory Interventions are a performance of agency but what happens if interventions are performed by forces that scholars have hardly ever considered as relevant agents in this regard Based on a study of regional politics towards the crises in Burundi and Zimbabwe the book analyses how these interventions shaped and changed the emerging regional interveners The book engages political discourse theory proposing an understanding of intervention as a field in which multiple and heterogeneous interpretations of the violence the crisis and the future post conflict order meet It is not hard to imagine that this encounter is not harmonious per se but full of frictions By making use of political discourse theory as a grammar for studying the complexity of an intervention the focus is directed to the emerging subjectivities of regional interveners This enables a view of regional interventions that neither reduces their subjectivity to universalist categories associated with liberal peace nor overenthusiastically embraces them as the solution to all problems This book will be of interest to students of international intervention discourse theory African politics war and conflict studies security studies and IR Peace Research Abstracts Journal, 2000 Civil Political Discourse Milton Schwebel, 2000 This special issue is an outgrowth of the work to increase constructiveness of political discourse through the application of psychological theory and research The main article discusses the nature of political disclosure its role in democratic decision making and the intentions of the founders of American democracy in placing political discourse at the center of civic life It also addresses the characteristics that founders and early American citizens gave to political discourse other forms of political persuasion and the role of psychology in maintaining the health of democracy A theory program of research and normative procedure for ensuring that political discourse is conducted in constructive ways are then described It is followed by a series of commentaries remarking on issues raised by the main article Violence Explained John Wear Burton, 1997 In Violence Explained John Burton presents a new approach to the problems of violence conflict and crime and explains how this can be used as a basis for public policy Conflict Resolution and the Scholarship of Engagement Cheryl Lynn Duckworth, Consuelo Doria Kelley, 2012 As the field of conflict analysis and resolution continues to grow scholars and practitioners increasingly recognize that we can learn from one another Theory must be informed by practice and practice must draw on sound theory Above and beyond this lies a further recognition without at least attempting to actually engage and transform entrenched conflicts our field cannot hope to achieve its potential We will merely remain in a more diverse multi disciplinary ivory tower This edition breaks new ground in explicitly connecting the Scholarship of Engagement to the work of conflict resolution professionals including those in the academy those in the field and those who refuse to choose between the two The text explores a wide variety of examples of and thinking on the Scholarship of Engagement from participatory action research to peace education and from genocide prevention to community mediation and transitional justice Gender, Violence and Security Laura Shepherd, 2008-04 In this highly original poststructural feminist critique the author maps the discursive terrains of institutions both NGOs and the UN which formulate and implement resolutions and guides of practice that affect gender issues in the context of international policy practices Drawing together theoretical work on discourses of gender violence and international security sexualized violence in war gender and peace processes and the domestic international dichotomy with her own rigorous empirical investigation the author develops a compelling discourse theoretical analysis that promises to have far reaching impact in both academic and policy environments

Bibliographie Mensuelle. Partie I, Livres, Documents Officiels, Publications en Série United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland), 1996 Security Identity and the Southern Caucasus Michael Geistlinger, 2008 Dealing with Diversity Georg Frerks, Bart Klem, 2005 Contributed articles Conflict Resolution John Wear Burton, 1996 Written as an introductory text Conflict Resolution also provides a solid understanding of the history basic theory and practice of conflict resolution for decision makers and policy makers in industry law and government
