Gilroy, 2011-05-11 Discovering the Healer Within explains the interconnectedness of the mind body and spirit The material within will shed light on why one man is happy healthy loving and successful while another struggles The happy healthy loving and successful man knows how to use the Universal Law of Attraction He understands how to use his conscious thoughts to design his life This man understands and does not fear illness or disease because he understands the self healing functions of the physical body and what to do when illness and disease occur Finally this man understands his purpose in life He understands that he is a spiritual being having a physical experience To make the most of our time on earth we need to understand why we are here what we are supposed to accomplish and the purpose of life and death Turks, Moors, and Englishmen in the Age of Discovery Nabil Matar, 2000-10-25 During the early modern period hundreds of Turks and Moors traded in English and Welsh ports dazzled English society with exotic cuisine and Arabian horses and worked small jobs in London while the Barbary Corsairs raided coastal towns and if captured lingered in Plymouth jails or stood trial in Southampton courtrooms In turn Britons fought in Muslim armies traded and settled in Moroccan or Tunisian harbor towns joined the international community of pirates in Mediterranean and Atlantic outposts served in Algerian households and ships and endured captivity from Salee to Alexandria and from Fez to Mocha In Turks Moors and Englishmen Nabil Matar vividly presents new data about Anglo Islamic social and historical interactions Rather than looking exclusively at literary works which tended to present unidimensional stereotypes of Muslims Shakespeare's superstitious Moor or Goffe's raging Turke to name only two Matar delves into hitherto unexamined English prison depositions captives memoirs government documents and Arabic chronicles and histories The result is a significant alternative to the prevailing discourse on Islam which nearly always centers around ethnocentrism and attempts at dominance over the non Western world and an astonishing revelation about the realities of exchange and familiarity between England and Muslim society in the Elizabethan and early Stuart periods Concurrent with England s engagement and discovery of the Muslims was the discovery of the American Indians In an original analysis Matar shows how Hakluyt and Purchas taught their readers not only about America but about the Muslim dominions too how there were more reasons for Britons to venture eastward than westward and how in the period under study more Englishmen lived in North Africa than in North America Although Matar notes the sharp political and colonial differences between the English encounter with the Muslims and their encounter with the Indians he shows how Elizabethan and Stuart writers articulated Muslim in terms of Indian and Indian in terms of Muslim By superimposing the sexual constructions of the Indians onto the Muslims and by applying to them the ideology of holy war which had legitimated the destruction of the Indians English writers prepared the groundwork for orientalism and for the eighteenth and nineteenth century conquest of Mediterranean Islam Matar s detailed research provides a new direction in the study of England s geographic imagination It also illuminates the subtleties and interchangeability of stereotype racism and demonization that must be taken into account in any responsible depiction of English history Discover Where You Live Barrett

Luginbuehl-Oelhafen, 2009 Art Therapy with Chronically Ill Adolescents explores the effectiveness of art therapy as a primary intervention with an adolescent population with chronic physical illness. In this particular case with adolescents in chronic renal failure either on hemodialysis peritoneal dialysis or after kidney transplantation The hypothesis is that art therapy 1 facilitates expression of emotions through artwork ideally including verbal expression 2 enhances self esteem and identity 3 helps them cope with their chronic physical illness and 4 finally offers an opportunity to vent anger and frustration catharsis By getting a safe place to explore issues related not only to the developmental stage but also to the conditions of chronic physical illness these teenagers may begin to discover their individual strengths through art therapy rather than dwell primarily on their individual weaknesses In essence the book will explore whether art therapy can be a means by which this population could be helped to accept and integrate their chronic physical conditions into their lives and to find an appropriate place in our society In addition the book will investigate whether art therapy could become a sanctuary one in which the patient is allowed to keep control to make his own decisions and to explore and develop a sense of freedom in an overwhelming controlling environment Consisting of four chapters Chapter 1 provides an in depth perspective on literature review and adolescence as a developmental stage The psychological impact of chronic physical illness in adolescence creativity and art therapy medical art therapy and the creative process is discussed Chapter 2 studies methodology independent variables settings procedures materials used and the gathering of data Chapter 3 addresses case histories their artwork the short term treatment group and the long term treatment group Seven clients and examples of their artwork are presented Chapter 4 discusses results conclusions and ideas for further studies The Journals of Captain James Cook on his Voyages of Discovery J.C. Beaglehole, 2017-07-05 Captain James Cook's first two voyages of exploration in 1768-71 and 1772-75 had drawn the modern map of the South Pacific Ocean and had opened the door on the discovery of Antarctica These expeditions were the subject of Volumes I and II of this edition of Cook's Journals The third voyage on which Cook sailed in 1776 was directed to the Northern Hemisphere Sailing north from Tahiti in 1778 Cook made the first recorded discovery of the Hawaiian Islands On March 7 he sighted the Oregon coast in 44°N The remarkable voyage which he made northward along the Canadian and Alaskan coasts and through Bering Strait to his farthest north in 70°N nearly disproved the existence of a navigable passage towards the Atlantic and produced charts of impressive accuracy Returning to Hawaii to refit Cook met his death in a clash with the natives as tragic as it seems unnecessary The volume and vitality of the records both textual and graphic for this voyage surpass those even for Cook's second voyage Dr Beaglehole prints the full text of Cook's own holograph journals followed by those of Captains Clerke and King for the course of the voyage after Cook's death

This is a facsimile reprint of the edition published in 1967 For the print on demand edition the illustrations originally in colour are reproduced in black and white the fold outs divided to fit on separate pages and the volume itself split into two parts
