Exploring Development Through Childhood Martin Fabes, Richard Fabes, Carol Lynn Martin, 2001-03 This text uses a chronological organization to teach principles of development through childhood and encourages readers to reflect on their own personal experience of development A brief paperback version of Exploring Child Development the authors goal was to address the need for a book that actually showed the child in the context of human relationships Children do not develop in a vacuum as the process of development is shaped by the continuous interplay between individuals and their ever changing environments

To illustrate the uniqueness of these individuals and environments the authors have integrated examples of diversity throughout the text in the domains of physical psychological and cultural differences gender race ethnicity and social and economic status

Education of the Gifted and Talented Gary A. Davis, Sylvia B. Rimm, 2004 This practical resource presents the best ideas and practices in the field of gifted education From planning a sound gifted and talented program to the evaluation of a program this leading text explores contemporary program models problems of minority disabled and female gifted students Chapters on creativity and teaching thinking skills two concepts central to gifted education help the reader understand creative students creative processes and how to foster high levels of creative thinking Chs 10 11
