Discovering The Greek Countryside At Metaponto Thomas Spencer Jerome Lectures:

Discovering the Greek Countryside at Metaponto Joseph Coleman Carter, 2006 Explores one of the earliest and most comprehensive archeological explorations of rural Greece The Chora of Metaponto 2 Sándor Bökönyi, Erika Gál, 2012-10-03 From 1974 to the present the Institute of Classical Archaeology at the University of Texas at Austin has carried out archaeological excavations in the ancient territory chora of Metaponto now located in the modern province of Basilicata on the southern coast of Italy This wide ranging investigation which covers a number of sites and a time period ranging from prehistory to the Roman Empire has unearthed a wealth of new information about the ancient rural economy in southern Italy These discoveries will be published in a multi volume series titled The Chora of Metaponto This volume on archaeozoology the study of animal remains from archaeological sites is the second in the series following The Chora of Metaponto The Necropoleis 1998 Archaeozoology at Pantanello and Five Other Sites describes the animal remains found throughout Metaponto and discusses what they reveal about ancient practices of hunting and herding domestication and importation of new breeds people s attitudes toward animals and what animal remains indicate about past environments A chapter devoted to bird bones which are a relatively rare find because of their fragility provides high quality information on the environment and methods of fowling as well as on the beliefs and symbolism associated with birds The final chapter covers tools some simple others sophisticated and richly decorated made from animal bones The World of the Western Greeks Kathryn Lomas, 2025-07-18 This volume presents studies by international experts on aspects of the society economy religion culture and history of the Greek settlements of the ancient western Mediterranean one of the most innovative areas of the ancient Greek world Across 43 chapters this book synthesizes material evidence integrates this with ancient sources and introduces key methodological debates on the nature and study of Greek settlement in the west It provides an overview of the history of the region from earliest contact with the Greek world to the Roman period and examines the relationships between Greek and non Greek populations of the western Mediterranean and how they shaped each other s histories and cultures The volume also explores aspects of the economy society and culture of the region illustrating the contribution of the western Greeks to shaping wider Greek culture and identity By adopting a wide ranging approach integrating material evidence and ancient sources it illuminates the diversity and innovative nature of the western Greek world from its earliest development to the aftermath of the Roman conquest The World of the Western Greeks is an essential reference work for students and scholars of the Greek western Mediterranean and its history culture and society Patterns in the Production of Apulian Red-Figure Pottery Edward Herring, 2018-10-01 Most of the previous scholarship on Apulian red figure pottery has focused on the cataloguing of collections the attribution of vases to painters and workshops iconographic and stylistic matters and individual vessels and vase forms This partly reflects the history of vase painting scholarship which grew out of antiquarian collecting during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and the fact that a full archaeological provenance is not preserved for the overwhelming majority of vessels This book takes a different approach by using a database containing in excess of 13 500 vessels and fragments to identify patterns in the production and decoration of Apulian vases that cast light on the choices made by vase producers and the preferences of their customers Individual chapters consider the popularity of different vessel shapes over time the use of highly generic decorative scenes which are characteristic of Apulian red figure as well as the popularity of scenes of myth images of the gods scenes of the life of the non Greek population of ancient Puglia and those showing funerary monuments As virtually all of the vases in the sample derive from tombs the patterns identified provide insights into the ways in which the ancient populations of South East Italy both Greek and indigenous honoured their dead The Cambridge Prehistory of the Bronze and Iron Age Mediterranean A.

Bernard Knapp, Peter van Dommelen, 2015-01-12 The Cambridge Prehistory of the Bronze and Iron Age Mediterranean offers new insights into the material and social practices of many different Mediterranean peoples during the Bronze and Iron Ages presenting in particular those features that both connect and distinguish them Contributors discuss in depth a range of topics that motivate and structure Mediterranean archaeology today including insularity and connectivity mobility migration and colonization hybridization and cultural encounters materiality memory and identity community and household life and death and ritual and ideology The volume's broad coverage of different approaches and contemporary archaeological practices will help practitioners of Mediterranean archaeology to move the subject forward in new and dynamic ways Together the essays in this volume shed new light on the people ideas and materials that make up the world of Mediterranean archaeology today beyond the borders that separate Europe Africa and the Middle East Dalle fonti alla narrazione. Ricostruzione storica per il racconto della quotidianità Marco Valenti, Stefano Ricci, Vittorio Fronza, 2018-05-30 Il volume raccoglie gli atti di due seminari svoltisi tra aprile e maggio 2017 all'Università degli Studi di Siena incentrati sulla ricostruzione storica intesa nelle sue diverse e complementari declinazioni con il primo incontro si sono infatti affrontati i temi del reenactment e della living history mentre il secondo ha approfondito la rappresentazione dei risultati delle indagini archeologiche su specifici contesti materiali Archeologi e ricostruttori si incontrano e si confrontano traendone reciproco vantaggio e mirando ad un obiettivo comune ambizioso coinvolgere il pubblico in una comunicazione archeologica di qualità superiore in grado di coniugare eccellenza scientifica e vena narrativa L'ottica adottata parte infatti dalla considerazione di come l'archeologia italiana stia vivendo un momento di criticità riconducibile alla scarsa propensione nel trasformare le proprie competenze in valore significativo anche in una prospettiva pubblica In questo scenario i vari contributi sono accomunati dalla ricerca di una via innovativa che metta in primo piano la materialità della storia affrontando casi molto eterogenei per scala approcci metodi e risultati attesi Si passa quindi dalla ricostruzione del volto a partire dal cranio di individui scavati alla rappresentazione della cultura materiale di casi specifici e archeologicamente noti Vengono trattate ricostruzioni di singoli personaggi reali o immaginari riproducendone l'abbigliamento gli accessori le armi ma anche il comportamento la condizione sociale la vita quotidiana e di intere strutture e insediamenti in scala reale come in plastico arrivando ad operare sintesi su particolari contesti e periodi Le due anime ricostruzione e archeologia sono quindi ben rappresentate nella pubblicazione e vengono integrate da riflessioni di carattere più generale sull'archeologia pubblica e sulle sue potenzialità per la ricerca la tutela la comunicazione In un corposo saggio introduttivo scritto da Marco Valenti si tracciano le linee guida teoriche e pratiche per attuare il nuovo approccio proposto nel volume discutendone gli attuali limiti e soprattutto mostrandone l'enorme potenziale per il futuro

Side-by-Side Survey Susan Alcock, John Cherry, 2016-10-02 Twenty years ago John Cherry looked forward to the day when archaeological survey projects working around the Mediterranean region the Frogs round the pond would begin to compare and synthesize the information they had collected He anticipated researchers tackling big questions of interregional scope in new and interesting ways working at a geographical scale considerably larger than that of the individual survey Was his optimism misplaced Despite the extraordinary growth of interest in field survey projects and regional analysis and despite the developments in survey methodology that have been discussed and implemented in the past two decades few scholars have attempted to use survey data in a comparative mode and to answer the broad scale questions confronting social historians In this volume which is the outcome of an advanced Workshop held at the University of Michigan in 2002 a number of prominent archaeologists return to the question of comparability They discuss the potential benefits of working in a comparative format with evidence from many different Mediterranean survey projects and consider the practical problems that present roadblocks to achieving that objective From mapping and manuring to human settlement and demography environment and culture each addresses different questions often with quite different approaches together they offer a range of perspectives on how to put surveys side by side Contributors include Susan E Alcock John Cherry Jack L Davis Peter Attema Martijn van Leusen James C Wright Robin Osborne David Mattingly T J Wilkinson and Richard E Blanton
