Dismembered Rhetoric English Recusant Writing 1580 To 1603:

Dismembered Rhetoric Ceri Sullivan, 1995 Dismembered Rhetoric describes the rhetoric of devotional publications by the Catholic secret presses between 1580 and 1603 A myth persists of a chasm between the Protestant battle cry of Bible and the Catholic approach to the laity through sacrament rather than word However Catholic authors did employ formal rhetoric to guide the devotions of the reader Writers such as Robert Persons William Allen Henry Garnet Edmund Campion and Robert Southwell recognized that these techniques did not emasculate the chaste prose of their shining band of martyrs

Theologies of Language in English Renaissance Literature James S. Bauman, 2012-05-30 Redescribing renaissance literature as a battleground of competing theologies of language Bauman reads Shakespeare's Hamlet Donne's Songs and Sonets and Milton's Lycidas within a revisionist history of rhetoric these works Bauman argues mark stages in the Weberian Entzauberung or disenchantment of literature as they move from the word magic of medieval Catholicism to a puritan reformed rhetoric of The Poetics of Conversion in Early Modern English Literature Molly Murray, 2009-10-15 This book considers the poetry written by converts between Catholic and Protestant churches within post Reformation England

Wounds, Flesh, and Metaphor in Seventeenth-Century England S. Covington, 2009-08-31 Wounds Flesh and Metaphor in Seventeenth Century England explores the theme of physical and symbolic woundedness in mid seventeenth century English literature This book demonstrates the ways in which writers attempted to represent the politically and religiously fractured state of the time and re imagined the nation through language and metaphor in the process By examining the creative permutations of the wound metaphor Covington argues for the centrality of the charged imagery and language itself in shaping the self representations of an age The Encyclopedia of English Renaissance Literature, 3 Volume Set Garrett A. Sullivan, Jr., Alan Stewart, Rebecca Lemon, Nicholas McDowell, Jennifer Richards, 2012-01-30 Featuring entries composed by leading international scholars The Encyclopedia of English Renaissance Literature presents comprehensive coverage of all aspects of English literature produced from the early 16th to the mid 17th centuries Comprises over 400 entries ranging from 1000 to 5000 words written by leading international scholars Arranged in A Z format across three fully indexed and cross referenced volumes Provides coverage of canonical authors and their works as well as a variety of previously under considered areas including women writers broadside ballads commonplace books and other popular literary forms Biographical material on authors is presented in the context of cutting edge critical discussion of literary works Represents the most comprehensive resource available for those working in English Renaissance literary studies Also available online as part of the Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Literature providing 24/7 access and powerful searching browsing and cross referencing capabilities Milton and Catholicism Ronald Corthell, Thomas N. Corns, 2017-11-15 This collection of original essays by literary critics and historians analyzes a wide range of Milton's writing from his early poetry through his mid century political prose to De Doctrina Christiana which was unpublished in his lifetime and finally to his last and greatest poems The contributors investigate the rich variety of approaches to Milton's engagement with Catholicism and its relationship to reformed religion The essays address latent tensions and contradictions explore the nuances of Milton's relationship to the easy commonplaces of Protestant compatriots and disclose the polemical strategies and tactics that often shape that engagement The contributors link Milton and Catholicism with early modern confessional conflicts between Catholics and Protestants that in turn led to new models and standards of authority scholarship and interiority In Milton's case he deployed anti Catholicism as a rhetorical device and the negative example out of which Protestants could shape their identity The contributors argue that Milton's anti Catholicism aligns with his understanding of inwardness and conscience and illuminates one of the central conflicts between Catholics and Protestants in the period Building on recent scholarship on Catholic and anti Catholic discourses over the English Tudor and Stuart period new understandings of martyrdom and scholarship on Catholic women Milton and Catholicism provides a diverse and multifaceted investigation into a complex and little explored field in Milton studies Contributors Alastair Bellany Thomas Cogswell Thomas N Corns Ronald Corthell Angelica Duran Martin Dzelzainis John Flood Estelle Haan and Elizabeth Sauer

The Construction of Martyrdom in the English Catholic Community, 1535-1603 Anne Dillon, 2002 Between 1535 and 1603 more than 200 English Catholics were executed by the State for treason Drawing on an extraordinary range of contemporary sources Anne Dillon examines the ways in which these executions were transformed into acts of martyrdom Utilizing the reports from the gallows the Catholic community in England and in exile created a wide range of manuscripts and texts in which they employed the concept of martyrdom for propaganda purposes in continental Europe and for shaping Catholic identity and encouraging recusancy at home Particularly potent was use of visual means to convey martyrdom Through an examination of the work of Richard Verstegan and the martyr murals of the English College in Rome the book explores the influence of these images on the Counter Reformation Church the Jesuits and the political intentions of English Catholics in exile and those of their hosts Verstegan used the English martyrs in his Theatrum crudelitatum of 1587 to rally support from Catholics on the Continent for a Spanish invasion of England to overthrow Elizabeth I and her government The English martyr was Dillon argues as much a construction of international political rhetoric as it was of English religious and political debate

Shakespeare Richard Wilson asks why the dramatist remained so enigmatic about his own beliefs and so silent on the atrocities he survived Shakespeare constructed a drama not of discovery like his rivals but of darkness deferral evasion and disguise where for all his hopes of a golden time of future toleration What s to come is always unsure Whether or not He died a papist it is because we can never pluck out the heart of his mystery that Shakespeare s plays retain their unique potential to resist This is essential reading for all scholars of Shakespeare and Renaissance studies The Ben Jonson Journal ,2000

Vol for Oct 1977 contains Index to reviews of bibliographical publications 1976 The Maudlin Impression Patricia Badir,2009 The Maudlin Impression investigates the figure of Mary Magdalene in post medieval English religious writings and visual representations as a lasting icon in Protestant writings even after the Reformation In the Grip of the Law Monika Fludernik,Greta Olson,2004 This book contributes significantly to Law and Literature studies Arguing for the political relevance of their work the editors open the volume with an introduction that summarizes topical developments in law enforcement and penal politics including the prisonization of American society and popular support for la no tolerance approaches to crime The fourteen essays that follow six on trials and eight on prisons discuss subjects ranging from the political ramifications of Captain Kidd s trials for piracy to a reading of South African prison memoirs and include treatments of prison films courtroom dramas and works by Dickens Shakespeare and Scott The volume demonstrates powerfully how concepts of criminality are constructed and how literature participates in and sometimes enhances general discursive traditions of adversarial litigation and carcerality The Old World Anew Candace Ingrid Lines,2001
