Paths to God Joan Z. Borysenko,1999-01-08 Just as many rivers lead to the sea there are many paths to God Each of the seven primary energy centers of the human body the chakras corresponds to a specific path In this book Joan Borysenko tells you how a mystical moment can strike at any time when you are fully present in the moment when looking at a beautiful full moon a sunset walking in nature or looking into the eyes of a child When you are fully present in the moment you will be filled with a sense of awe and beauty and feel fully connected with the universe This book outlines the 7 paths complete with spiritual exercises giving the reader a sense of the most fruitful direction for their journey You will learn that you don t have to go to Nepal or go climb a mountain to have a mystical moment but in learning how to be fully present in your everyday life you will find that mystical moments can be found in the mundane the ordinary or also in the extraordinary Secrets of Attraction Sandra Anne Taylor,2001-09-07 In this uniquely fascinating book Sandra Anne Taylor reveals how the Universal Laws and even quantum physics actually direct the course of your relationship destiny Energy is the center of all life and your energy is the center of all that you attract You project this energy ahead of you in time and space magnetically determining whom you will meet as well as what the dynamics of any particular relationship will be like In Secrets of Attraction you ll discover what makes up your personal energy field how you broadcast it and why it has much more impact on your relationships than your looks intellect or financial status No matter what you ve been through in the past you do have the power to change your relationship energy and manifest the intimacy reciprocity and true love that has been eluding you for so long Capitalism Contested Romain Huret,Nelson Lichtenstein,Jean-Christian Vinel,2020-12-11 In the historical narrative that prevails today the New Deal years are positioned between two equally despised Gilded Ages the first in the late nineteenth century and the second characterized by the world of Walmart globalization and right wing populism in which we currently live What defines these two ages is an increasing level of inequality legitimized by powerful ideologies namely Social Darwinism at the end of the nineteenth century and neoliberalism today In stark contrast the era of the New Deal was first and foremost an attempt to put an end to inequality in American society In the historical longue dur e it appears today as a kind of golden age when policymakers and citizens sought to devise solutions to the two major questions labor on one side social on the other that were at the heart of the American political economy during the twentieth century Capitalism Contested argues that the New Deal order remains an effective framework to make sense of the transformation of American political economy over the last hundred years Contributors offer an historicized analysis of the degree to which that political economic and ideological order persists and the ways in which it has been transcended or even overthrown The essays pay attention not only to those ideas and social forces hostile to the New Deal but to the contradictions and debilities that were present at the inauguration or became inherent within this liberal impulse during the last half of the twentieth century The unifying thematic among the essays consists not in their subject matter politics political economy social thought and legal scholarship are represented but in a historical quest to assess the transformation and fate of an economic and policy order nearly a century after its creation Contributors Kate Andrias Romain Huret William P Jones Nelson Lichtenstein Nancy MacLean Isaac William Martin Margaret O Mara K Sabeel Rahman Timothy Shenk Elizabeth Tandy Shermer Jason Scott Smith Samir Sonti Karen M Tani Jean Christian Vinel Techniques ,2005 Making education and career connections
