Disciplina Nostra Essays In Memory Of Robert F Evans:

Disciplina Nostra Donald F. Winslow, 1979-01-01 Resurrection of the Body in Early Judaism and Early Christianity Claudia Setzer, 2021-10-01 How did the belief in resurrection become part of the symbolic construction of early Jewish and Christian communities Why was it a marker for who did or did not belong in certain groups Using insights from the social sciences and rhetorical studies the author discusses the development of belief in resurrection in early Jewish circles and the growth of a resurrection apologetic in early Christianity Examining materials on the Pharisees Jewish liturgy and the earliest rabbinic statements as well as the theology of resurrection in Paul Justin Athenagoras Irenaeus and Tertullian this study demonstrates the stability of certain tenets that coalesce around the concept of resurrection and its utility as a shorthand for a community's theology and self understanding

Gregory of Nyssa and the Concept of Divine Persons Lucian Turcescu, 2005-02-17 The concept of personhood is central to a wide range of contemporary issues ranging from reproductive rights to the death penalty and euthanasia We may think that the concept of person is a modern development In fact however this idea does not originate with our discovery of human rights consciousness and individuality In this study Lucian Turcescu shows that the fourth century theologian Gregory of Nyssa developed a very sophisticated concept of the person in the context of his attempts to clarify the paradox of the Trinity a single God comprising three distinct persons Turcescu offers the first in depth analysis of Gregory's writings about the divine persons He shows that Gregory understood personhood as characterized by uniqueness relationality and freedom He reasoned that the three persons of the Trinity have distinctive properties that make them individuals that is capable of being enumerated and circumscribed But this idea of individuation inherited from the neo Platonists falls short of expressing a clear notion of personal uniqueness By itself it would suggest that a person is merely a collection of properties Gregory's great contribution was to perceive the importance of relationality to personhood The three divine persons know and love each other are in communion with each other and freely act together in their common will This understanding argues Turcescu adds up to a concept of personal uniqueness much like our modern one Turcescu's work not only contributes to our knowledge of the history of Trinitarian theology but can be helpful to theologians who are dealing with issues in contemporary ethics

Trinity and Man Giulio Maspero, 2007 Trinity and Man contributes to the actual discussion on the interpretation of Gregory of Nyssa's thought and particularly on the Ad Ablabium it constitutes the first monograph devoted entirely to this tract analyzed here from the theological point of view

Early Christian Literature Helen Rhee, 2005-04-28 Helen Rhee's outstanding work is the first book to bring together The Apologies and the semi fictional Apocryphal Acts and Martyr Acts in a single study Filling a significant gap in the scholarship she looks at Christian self definition and self representation in the context of pagan Christian conflict Using an interdisciplinary approach historical literary theological sociological and anthropological Rhee studies the Christians in the formative period of their religion from mid first to early third centuries She examines how the forms of Greco Roman society were adapted by the Christians to present the superiority of Christian monotheism Christian sexual morality and Christian dis loyalty to the Empire Tackling broad topics including theology asceticism sexuality and patriotism this book explores issues of cultural identity and examines how these propagandist writings shaped the theological moral and political trajectories of Christian faith and contributed largely to the definition of orthodoxy This thorough study will benefit all students of early Christianity and Greco Roman literary culture and civilization

Remembering Paul Benjamin L. White, 2017 Who was Paul of Tarsus Radical visionary of a new age Gender liberating progressive Great defender of orthodoxy In Remembering Paul Benjamin L. White offers a critique of early Christian claims about the real Paul in the second century C E a period in which apostolic memory was highly contested and sets these ancient contests alongside their modern counterpart attempts to rescue the historical Paul from his canonical entrapments White charts the rise and fall of various narratives about Paul and argues that Christians of the second century had no access to the real Paul Through the selection combination and interpretation of pieces of a diverse earlier layer of the Pauline tradition Christians defended images of the Apostle that were important for forming collective identity Journal of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, 1942

The Montanist Oracles and Testimonia Ronald E. Heine, 1989 A Multiform Heritage Benjamin G. Wright, 1999 Students colleagues and friends offer 22 essays in honor of the professor of religious studies at the University of Pennsylvania The topics include opisthographs from the Judean Desert evidence for the early history of the Amidah in Corinthians 15 51 52 Jewish arguments against Christianity in the Dialogue of Timothy and Aquila and a Coptic manuscript of the Gospel of John in the University of Pennsylvania Museum Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Tree of Gnosis Ioan P. Culianu, 1992 This pioneering study interprets the mythology of dualism from Gnosticism to the medieval Cathars to modern nihilism Coulano shows that far from being historically transmitted the underlying connection between all dualistic worldviews is a perennial and immensely appealing mindset The Catholic Biblical Quarterly Wendell Stephen Reilly, 1981 Includes various reports of the Association

Journal of Early Christian Studies, 2003 Focus is on the study of Christianity in the context of late ancient societies and religions from C E 100 700 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 1982 Journal of Biblical Literature, 1981 Volumes for 1960 include Proceedings of the annual meetings of the Society

The Use of Sacrificial Ideas in Greek Christian Writers from the New Testament to John Chrysostom Frances Margaret Young, 1979 The subject of Christ s sacrifice on the Cross has mainly been treated in the context of general discussions of Atonement theory This is inevitable but when it occurs his sacrifice tends to be confused with theories of substitution satisfaction and propitiation in which case its nature is understood according to a priori assumptions concerning the proper rationale of sacrifice The result of this situation is that according to their own convictions historians of the Doctrine of the Atonement have either tended to accept sacrificial language in the Greek Fathers as evidence of the presence of the later Western theory of atonement at any rate in germ or they have dismissed it as no more than the use of traditional

Christian expressions which do not represent the real Doctrine held by the authors with whom we are concerned In addition to this the treatment of sacrificial language as one of the modes of expressing Atonement has meant that in modern studies the subject of Christ s sacrifice has been divorced from consideration of the sacrificial worship and service of the Church
