Discipling the City Roger S. Greenway, 2000-12-29 Discipling the City Roger S. Greenway, 1992 Churches That Make a Difference Ronald J. Sider, Philip N. Olson, Heidi Rolland Unruh, 2002-04-01 Churches over the past generations have been weakened by a failure to meet both the physical and spiritual needs of their communities Many have adopted a narrow vision focusing on only one aspect of ministry But in today s environment of faith based opportunities many Christians are eager to start reaching out to their world with both Good News and good works and therefore they are searching for appropriate ways to integrate both into their ministry In Churches That Make a Difference best selling author Ron Sider and his coauthors give those involved in community outreach a comprehensive resource for developing holistic ministry a balance of evangelism and social outreach Illustrations and helpful organizational tips detail the how to s of an effective holistic ministry Case studies that show how different churches across the United States reach out to their communities provide a variety of ideas and practical applications User friendly tools are included as well for congregational studies surveys evaluations and community assessments The authors draw on extensive experience with church ministries and faith based organizations as they share the life changing vision and biblical mandate for living the whole gospel Church leaders will be encouraged in their process of developing and maintaining a holistic ministry and local churches will rediscover a passion for loving the whole person the way Jesus did Reconnecting the Church J. Timothy Kauffman, 2010-07-23 Reconnecting the Church is offered as a practical guide to assist pastors and laypeople in understanding the city engaging and serving the local community in which the church is located The book s purpose is to come along side the local church that wishes to reconnect to its local community and offer practical ways to accomplish that task There are 25 chapters each of which describes briefly an aspect of life in the city At the end of each chapter are practical action reflection projects These projects are designed to give the reader first hand experience of their church s immediate neighborhood They are specific tasks most of which will be done outside the church Each action is described and guidance is given for reflection after each project

God So Loves the City Charles E. Van Engen, Jude Tiersma, 2009-08-01 From the explosive contexts of Nairobi Mexico City Los Angeles and Madras burst fresh insights on the mission of the church for the city Jude Tiersma and Charles Van Engen worked closely with an international team of experienced urban practitioners to explore the most urgent issues facing those who minister in today s cities From each particular urban setting a team member contributed a story from ministry in the city Each story uniquely illustrates a different challenge of urban ministry in the face of injustice marginalization and urban structures This book brings you these stories then retells them in light of Scripture introducing new hope to each one From these stories emerge new ideas about the nature of cities and how to practice ministry in them The new methodology employed by Van Engen and Tiersma s team leads us in the first steps toward a theology of mission for the city God So Loves the City is a must for pastors seminary students missiologists congregation members and all who are concerned about urban ministry Urban Ministry Manuel Ortiz, Harvie M. Conn, 2025-06-06 No 3 in the Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Books of the Year The city presents serious challenges that cry out for answers poverty racism human exploitation and government corruption How can the church move ahead in the midst of these demands with the gospel of hope Here in one comprehensive volume Harvie Conn and Manuel Ortiz two noted scholars and proven practitioners of urban ministry address the vital work of the church in the city Their dual goal to understand the city and God's work in it Through four great waves of development Conn and Ortiz trace the history of the city around the world Then they tackle the critical issue of a biblical basis for urban mission How does the Bible view the city Are we closer to God in the country than the city Does the Bible have an anti urban bias These questions are given a thorough analysis that unveils God's urban mandate as reflected in both Old and New Testaments From this foundation the authors unpack the multifaceted nature of the city as place as process as center as power and as a place of change and stability They move us beyond fragmented stereotypes to a new way of seeing that is holistic enough for a fully biblical ministry to develop In addition Conn and Ortiz lay out what the social sciences have to offer urban mission including ethnographic and demographic studies and they focus on the particular issues and needs of urban leadership including a plan for developing and mentoring leaders while equipping the laity for ministry in the city This is the essential text for bringing God's kingdom to the city through the people of God Planting and Growing Urban Churches
