Disciplining Old Age The Formation Of Gerontological Knowledge:

Disciplining Old Age Stephen Katz,1996 This text provides a theoretical approach to what gerontology does It combines the theories of Foucault Bourdieu and Althusser in an analysis of what it calls the gerontological web The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture Juliet John,2016-06-30 The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture is a major contribution to the dynamic field of Victorian studies This collection of 37 original chapters by leading international Victorian scholars offers new approaches to familiar themes including science religion and gender and gives space to newer and emerging topics including old age fair play and economics Structured around three broad sections Ways of Being Identity and Ideology Ways of Understanding Knowledge and Belief and Ways of Communicating Print and Other Cultures the volume is sub divided into nine sub sections each with its own lead essay on subjectivity politics gender and sexuality place and race religion science material and mass culture aesthetics and visual culture and theatrical culture The collection like today s Victorian studies is thoroughly interdisciplinary and yet its substantial Introduction explores a concern which is evident both implicitly and explicitly in the volume s essays that is the nature and status of literary culture and the literary from the Victorian period to the present The diverse and wide ranging essays present original scholarship framed accessibly for a mixed readership of advanced undergraduates graduate students and established scholars The Becoming of Age Pamela H. Gravagne,2013-04-26 The Becoming of Age is an examination of the ways that aging and old age are represented in popular film Arguing that the ideas behind cinematic depictions of aging are historical and open to revision the author looks at how movies both promote negative portrayals of aging and challenge its persistent cultural devaluation Movies are a site of struggle where the representation and the reality of aging intertwine and they have the power not only to reflect but to reconstruct our understanding Old Age as Lifestyle in an Active Society Stephen Katz,1999 Ageing, The Body and Social Change Emmanuelle Tulle,2008-07-10 This book explores the relationship between embodiment and the production of the key structures which frame agency to map out potential for social change It uses modalities of ageing embodiment in the context of sport participation in later life specifically Master athletics including barriers opportunities and physiological dimensions Figuring Age Kathleen Woodward,1999-03-22 Figuring Age engages the virtually invisible subject of older women in western culture Like other markers of social difference age is given meaning by a culture Yet unlike gender and race the subjects of age and aging have received little sustained attention Central to Figuring Age is the crucial question of how women are aged by culture How are older women represented in a visual culture that is dominated by images of youth in television film and life performance How do psychoanalysis rejuvenation therapy and hormone replacement therapy the fashion system cosmetic surgery and midlife bodybuilding shape our views of aging as well as of the older body itself What is the timing of aging To what extent is aging a culturally induced trauma Social Theory and Aging Jason L. Powell,2006 This book attempts to identify two central areas for the study of aging and the epistemological differences and continuities between them constructions of aging modern and deconstructions of aging postmodern

Age Speaks for Itself Tom Koch,2000-08-30 Looks at the lives of the elderly mainly through their own words to draw meaning from this aspect of the human condition

Foucault and Aging Jason L. Powell,2006 This book is concerned with demonstrating the relevance and application of Michel Foucault s work to an understanding of human ageing The diverse range of arguments in the book identifies the ways in which ageing has been organised shaped and positioned through both knowledge systems and social processes which impinge on the social construction of ageing Whilst there has been an escalating array of fields influenced by Foucault s work ageing has been under theorised Indeed the wide subject matter of Foucault s scholarly work has developed path breaking yet critical perspectives on psychiatry medicine punishment crime and sexuality The essence of this particular book is that it raises the question of what gerontology as a discipline can learn from Foucauldian approaches This international volume demonstrates that deployment of Foucauldian theory to gerontological contexts has facilitated disruptions and ruptures of both the meta narratives inscribed within gerontology as both discipline and policy and the ontological status of its subjects

The Overselling of Population Aging Ellen Margaret Thomas Gee,Gloria M. Gutman,2000 This volume tackles a number of popular misconceptions about the social and economic impact of an aging population It emphasizes the specific demographic and policy changes taking place in Canada and focuses on trends in social policy that affect pensions healthcare and retirement It provides a critical look at how an apocalyptic approach to the aging population is being used by the conservative parties to dismantle the Canadian welfare state It also examines the many ways in which intergenerational relationships are changing and challenges the popular image of the elderly population as a burden on the younger generations

The Time of Our Lives Marcia Tucker,Anne Ellegood,1999 The fastest growing age group in America is those over 65 and accordingly there has been a recent upsurge in interest into how aging is perceived and represented The Time of Our Lives considers the depiction of aging within visual media How do stereo types in the conceptualization of age particularly the invisibility and infantilization of the elderly affect us The book also explores how medical research and new technologies are changing our ideas about aging longevity and reproduction and the cultural quest for the fountain of youth as evidenced through increasingly prevalent anti aging products and cosmetic surgery Age in Action Pirjo Nikander,2002 Abuse and Neglect of Older Adults L. McDonald,A. Collins,Canada. Health Canada,Canada. Family Violence Prevention Unit,2000 The purpose of this paper is to provide an overview of the important developments that have occurred in the field of research related to the abuse characteristics of victims and perpetrators theories of abuse risk factors for abuse protocols for abuse programs and services developed to address the issue and prevention The final section is a brief look to the future The Gerontologist ,2008 Current Work in the History of Medicine ,1997 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,1998 America, History and Life ,1999 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide
