The Discursive Construction of Hierarchy in Japanese Society Zi Wang, 2020-08-10 Seniority based hierarchy jouge kankei is omnipresent in Japanese group dynamics How one comports depends on one's status and position vis vis others To date no study shows what constitutes this hierarchy where and when individuals growing up in Japan first come into contact with it as well as how they learn to function in it This book fills in the lacunae Considering jouge kankei as a social institution and adopting a discourse analytic approach this volume examines the ways in which institutional jouge kankei as an enduring feature of Japanese social life are created and reproduced The monograph analyses how seniority based relations are enacted legitimised transmitted and reified by social actors through language use and paralinguistic discursive practices such as the use of space objects signs and symbols It also looks at how established rules could be challenged The empirical data on which findings are based are gathered through 10 months of ethnographic fieldwork from 2015 to 2018 in Japanese schools with certain types of data school club etiquette books and uniforms being presented and analysed for the first time This volume also shows continuity and change of jouge kankei from school to work The Social Construction of the Ocean Philip E. Steinberg,2001-10-25 This 2001 book presents a history of the uses regulations and representation of the world ocean from approximately 1450 through the present This history is told through a territorial political economy lens borrowing from world systems theory economic geographic studies of the spatiality of capitalism political geographic work on the history of territoriality and post structural work on social conflict in the production of space Just as the modern era has been characterized by a conflicting set of dynamic and contested spatiality on land so has it been characterized by a conflicting set of spatial functions at sea Evidence is marshaled from legal texts literary and artistic creations cartographic representations advertisements commercial and military history and policy debates The book concludes by considering how lessons learned from the history of the ocean may be applied to emerging spaces such as cyberspace where there is a similarly problematic fit between social processes and the institutions of state governance Popular Music and Society Alice Dadirai Kwaramba,1997 The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans John Hannigan,2015-11-30 Long regarded as an empty and inhospitable environment the deep ocean is rapidly emerging as an ecological hot spot with a remarkable diversity of biological life Yet the worlds oceans are currently on a dangerous trajectory of decline threatened by acidification oil and gas drilling overfishing and in the long term deep sea mining bioprospecting and geo engineering In The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans noted environmental sociologist John Hannigan examines the past present and future of our planets final frontier The author argues that our understanding of the deep its definition boundaries value ownership health and future state depends on whether we see it first and foremost as a resource cornucopia a political chessboard a shared commons or a unique and threatened ecology He concludes by locating a new storyline that imagines the oceans as a canary in the mineshaft for gauging the impact of global climate change The Geopolitics of Deep Oceans is a unique introduction to the geography law politics and sociology of the sub surface ocean It will appeal to anyone seriously concerned about the present state and future fate of the largest single habitat for life on our planet Training Readers and Writers for a Multimodal and Multimedia Society: Cognitive Aspects Ester Trigo-Ibanez,Inmaculada Clotilde Santos Diaz,Marcela Jarpa,2024-02-07 Contemporary societies have been advancing gradually towards the construction of a model of a literate population Significant efforts have been made so that most citizens can access various sources today using their reading and writing abilities but are we really prepared to face the information age Is information literacy being promoted from schools Are individual capabilities being considered Do we have a true critical literacy This article collection aims to show an overview of the most recent research ranging from the individual to the collective from the subject s competencies and their beliefs to the way to develop them from school There is room in this Research Topic for investigations belonging to the linguistic psychological and didactic field This Research Topic aims to address a pressing problem in contemporary world societies It is proposed to offer various contributions related to critical literacy in general and reading and writing. In this sense, research that addresses analog and digital reading writing processes, academic literacy and the use of resources such as non-fiction illustrated books to develop critical thinking will be welcome. But also, and in a very important way, the cognitive processes of the subject will be considered not only to deal with access to information but also in the construction of their mental lexicon, an issue that offers the vision of the world of those who are immersed in literacy and in the post-truth era.

Meaning, Discourse and Society Wolfgang Teubert, 2010-03-25. Meaning, Discourse and Society investigates the construction of reality within discourse. When people talk about things such as language, the mind, globalisation or weeds, they are less discussing the outside world than objects they have created collaboratively by talking about them. Wolfgang Teubert shows that meaning cannot be found in mental concepts or neural activity as implied by the cognitive sciences. He argues instead that meaning is negotiated and knowledge is created by symbolic interaction, thus taking language as a social rather than a mental phenomenon. Discourses, Teubert contends, can be viewed as collective minds enabling the members of discourse communities to make sense of themselves and of the world around them. By taking an active stance in constructing the reality they share, people thus can take part in moulding the world in accordance with their perceived needs.

Proceedings of the Louisiana Engineering Society, 1919. Representing Reality Jonathan Potter, 1996-08-13. This is an admirable book which can be recommended to students with confidence and is likely also to become an indispensable source of reference for those researching fact construction, discourse, conversation analysis and ethnomethodology and semiotics, post-structuralism and postmodernism.

Beyond Post-colonialism. The construction of Identities Through Muting and Absenting of the Other. Ahmed Musa, 2021-07-19. Essay from the year 2021 in the subject Cultural Studies / Middle Eastern Studies, grade 95. Language: English. Abstract: This paper is an attempt to trace the absence of the West in the cultural creative modes of knowledge productions that emerged post the Arab social movements in Tunisia and Egypt. Whenever we discuss or approach the subject of the construction of identities in post-colonial studies, the West, which I represent here as the other, is largely but not entirely perceived as consolidating against or formulating the identities of the East or the identities of the Rest. This is evident in not only the revered works of prominent theorists like Edward Said, Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak but also in the works of other post-colonial theorists and writers that emerged afterward. However, during the Arab Spring, one of the most solidaristic and transcultural Arab movements that searched for more stable governing models at crossroads of global, regional and national challenges, creative new forms of formulating identities beyond post-colonial theory emerged, such as the Arab Spring poetic slogans as creative modes of knowledge production which moved away from the previous discourse of the post-colonial Arab intellectuals built on a bifurcation identity and also in tandem revolting the internal regimes of knowledge production. The new forms of cultural productions not only represented moments of self-emergency, social solidarity and construction of the self during traumatic moments but also in tandem absented and muted the West and East.
