Discourses On Tantra Volume Two:

Discourses on Tantra Ānandamūrti, 1993      Discourses on Tantra Ānandamūrti, 1993      Discourses on Tantra Ānandamūrti, 1993      Discourses on Tantra Anandamurti, 1993      Knowing Illusion: Bringing a Tibetan Debate Into Contemporary Discourse The Yakherds, 2021 Tsongkhapa 1357-1419 is by any measure the single most influential philosopher in Tibetan history. His articulation of Prasāṅgika Mādhyamaka and his interpretation of the 7th Century Indian philosopher Candrakīrti's interpretation of Mādhyamaka is the foundation for the understanding of that philosophical system in the Geluk school in Tibet. Tsongkhapa argues that Candrakīrti shows that we can integrate the Mādhyamaka doctrine of the two truths and of the ultimate emptiness of all phenomena with a robust epistemology that explains how we can know both conventional and ultimate truth and distinguish truth from falsity within the conventional world. The Sakya scholar Taktsang Lotsawa, born 1405, published the first systematic critique of Tsongkhapa's system. In the fifth chapter of his Freedom from Extremes: Accomplished through Comprehensive Knowledge of Philosophy, Taktsang attacks Tsongkhapa's understanding of Candrakīrti and the cogency of integrating Prasāṅgika Mādhyamaka with any epistemology. This attack launches a debate between Geluk scholars on the one hand and Sakya and Kagyu scholars on the other regarding the proper understanding of this philosophical school and the place of epistemology in the Mādhyamaka program. This debate raged with great ferocity from the 15th through the 18th centuries and continues still today. These two volumes study that debate and present translations of the most important texts produced in that context. Volume I provides historical and philosophical background for this dispute and elucidates the philosophical issues at stake in the debate, exploring the principal arguments advanced by the principals on both sides and setting them in historical context. This volume presents English translations of each of the most important texts in this debate.      Knowing Illusion: Bringing a Tibetan Debate into Contemporary Discourse The Yakherds, 2021-04-19 This two-volume set examines the Tibetan debate regarding the possibility of knowledge in the context of Mādhyamaka initiated by the 15th-century philosopher Taktsang's attack on Tsongkhapa's presentation of epistemology and Mādhyamaka. Volume II presents translations of the principal texts.      Catalogue of the Tibetan Collection and Other Lamaist Articles in the Newark Museum Newark Museum, Newark Museum Association, 1950

The Awakening of Women Prabhat Ranjan Sarkar, Ānandamūrti, 1995      The Pacific World, 2006      The University in Transformation Sohail Inayatullah, Jennifer Gidley, 2000-01-30 Taking a long-term historical and future perspective on the university is critical at this time. The university is being refashioned often by forces out of the control of academics, students, and even administrators. However, there remain possibilities for informed action for steering the directions that the university can take. This book maps both the historical factors and the alternative futures of the university. Whereas most books on the university remain focused on the European model, this volume explores models and issues from non-Western perspectives as well. Inayatullah and Gidley draw together essays by leading academics from a variety of disciplines and nations on the futures of the university weaving historical factors with emerging issues and trends such as globalism virtualization multiculturalism and politicization They attempt to get beyond superficial debate on how globalism and the Internet as well as multiculturalism are changing the nature of the university and they thoughtfully assess these changes     An Elementary Textbook of Ayurveda Frank John Ninivaggi,2001 Himself a medical doctor Ninivaggi explains the fundamentals of traditional Indian health care translating them into terms and concepts familiar to westerners with or without a medical background History theoretical foundations anatomy physiology the health and diseases process nutrition and diet lifestyle and regiments and therapies are among his topics He includes an extensive glossary without indicating pronunciation but no index c Book News Inc     The Indian Review G.A.
