Discovering Stage Lighting:

Discovering Stage Lighting Francis Reid, 2016 Discovering Stage Lighting, 2nd Edition Francis Reid, 1998 This guide to the fundamentals of stage lighting includes a series of projects to allow experimentation discussion and analysis The necessary equipment is described in relation to its purpose along with checklists and hints for practical use The practical handling of light with observation of the relationship of cause to effect is central to the study of stage lighting Rehearsal pressures usually restrict the time available for experimenting with lighting for a performance but laboratory style projects can be used to enable specific lighting problems to be solved The core of this book is a series of discovery projects using minimal resources to explore the use of light in the theatre with particular emphasis on the interaction of conflicting visual aims The projects cover all the major scenarios likely to be encountered by lighting students and have been tried and tested by the author who has taught lighting students all over the world for over 30 years The book has been updated to include more on safety and the latest technology including fixed instruments using the new lower wattage high efficiency lamps in combination with dichronic reflectors an increase in the availability reliability range and usage of moving light technology based on remotely controlled instruments New lighting projects have also been added If you are studying the art and craft of stage lighting this book is an excellent working manual that will provide you with the technical knowledge and skill to cope with a range of lighting situations Theatre as Human Action Thomas S. Hischak, Mark A. Robinson, 2022-10-17 Theatre as Human Action is the ideal textbook to introduce students to the various aspects of theatre especially for those who may have little or no theatergoing experience Seven diverse plays are described to the reader from the start and then returned to throughout the book so that students can better understand the concepts being discussed Both the theoretical and practical aspects of theatre are explored from the classical definition of theatre to today's most avant garde theatre activities Types of plays the elements of drama and theatre criticism are presented as well as detailed descriptions of the different jobs in theatre such as actor playwright director designer producer choreographer and more The book concludes with a look at where and how theatre is evolving in America and the latest changes and innovations today This fourth edition has been greatly expanded and updated including The introduction of four new plays Sweeney Todd The Demon Barber of Fleet Street Fences Angels in America and Hadestown in addition to Macbeth You Can't Take It With You and Hamilton A discussion of the rise of social media in raising awareness and replacing traditional review outlets An entirely new enhanced section on diversity and inclusion in theatre An updated selection of playwrights featured including Terrence McNally Lynn Nottage Tony Kushner and Lin Manuel Miranda to better reflect the diversity of those writing for the theatre today Featuring full color photographs updated discussion questions new topics for further research and potential creative projects the fourth edition of Theatre as Human Action is an invaluable resource to introduce students to the world of theatre Theatre as Human Action Thomas S. Hischak, 2019-04-04 This book engages students particularly those who may not be very familiar with many plays in the theatre experience by focusing on just four plays the tragedy Macbeth the landmark African American drama A Raisin in the Sun the American comedy classic You Can't Take It with You and the contemporary hip hop musical Hamilton

Lighting Dance Flaviana Xavier Antunes Sampaio, 2020-10-15 Lighting Dance pioneers the discussion of the ability of lighting design to foreground shadow in dance performances Through a series of experiments integrating light shadow and improvised dance movement it highlights and analyses what it advances as an innovative expression of shadow in dance as an alternative to more conventional approaches to lighting design Different art forms such as painting film and dance pieces from Loie Fuller the Russell Maliphant Dance Company Elevenplay Pilobolus and the Tao Dance Theater served to inspire and contextualise the study From lighting to psychology from reviews to academic books shadows are examined as a symbolic and manipulative entity The book also presents the dance solo Sombreiro which was created to echo the experiments with light shadow and movement aligned to an interpretation of cultural shadow Jung 1954 in Samuels Shorter and Plaut 1986 Casement 2006 Ramos 2004 Stein 2004 and others The historical development of lighting within dance practices is also outlined providing a valuable resource for lighting designers dance practitioners and theatre goers interested in the visuality of dance performances

A Habit of Handel Francis Reid, 2012-10-23 This is the story of a love affair with the music of George Frederic Handel It records a half century of pursuing performances across Europe in a spirit of pure hedonism including 70 different baroque operas and 35 oratorios in 75 cities The great Handel Festivals in Göttingen Halle Karlsruhe and London are visited as are the major opera houses and concert halls plus civic theatres large fringe and digital Handel is placed in his baroque context by accounts of performances of opera and music by his contemporaries This not a critical work The author loves his subject much too much for that
