Aktionsbuch: Verkleiden, Maskieren, Schminken Engl Béatrice Tanaka,1982      Female Agency in the Urban Economy Deborah Simonton,Anne Montenach,2013-04-17 This innovative new book is overtly and explicitly about female agency in eighteenth century European towns However it positions female activity and decisions unequivocally in an urban world of institutions laws regulations customs and ideologies Gender politics complicated and shaped the day to day experiences of working women Town rules and customs as well as police and guilds regulations affected women s participation in the urban economy most of the time the formally recognized and legally accepted power of women which is an essential component of female agency was very limited Yet these chapters draw attention to how women navigated these gendered terrains As the book demonstrates exclusion is too strong a word for the realities and pragmatism of women s everyday lives Frequently guild and corporate regulations were more about situating women and regulating their activities rather than preventing them from operating in the urban economy Similarly corporate structures which were under stress found flexible strategies to incorporate women who through their own initiative and activities put pressure on the systems Women could benefit from the contradictions between moral and social unwritten norms and economic regulations and could take advantage of the tolerance or complicity of urban authorities towards illicit practices Women with a grasp of their rights and privileges could defend themselves and exploit legal systems with its loopholes and contradictions to achieve economic independence and power      Computer Vision - ECCV 2020 Workshops Adrien Bartoli,Andrea Fusiello,2021-01-04 The 6 volume set comprising the LNCS books 12535 until 12540 constitutes the refereed proceedings of 28 out of the 45 workshops held at the 16th European Conference on Computer Vision ECCV 2020 The conference was planned to take place in Glasgow UK during August 23 28 2020 but changed to a virtual format due to the COVID 19 pandemic The 249 full papers 18 short papers and 21 further contributions included in the workshop proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 467 submissions The papers deal with diverse computer vision topics Part VI focusses on reassessing the evaluation of object detection computer vision problems in plant phenotyping fair face recognition and analysis and perception through structured generative models      She Was An American Spy During WW II Jeane Slone,2024-04-30 There were very few American women spies during World War II Women spies were looked upon as expendable They received very little pay and no benefits What they all shared was a strong fierce conviction to end a long arduous war Many women watched their men risk their lives and they too wanted to do their patriotic duty to help end this war The bombing of Pearl Harbor ended our isolationism and women joined the battle They were taught everything the men were taught from Jiu jitsu to gunfighting and all the tricks of espionage before they were sent on dangerous missions      Disguise Workshop Beatrice TANAKA,1983      Annual Report India.
