Mālik and Medina Umar F. Abd-Allah, 2013-03-28 This book studies the legal reasoning of M lik ibn Anas d 179 H 795 C E in the Muwa a and Mudawwana Although focusing on M lik the book presents a broad comparative study of legal reasoning in the first three centuries of Islam It reexamines the role of considered opinion ra y dissent and legal ad ths and challenges the paradigm that Muslim jurists ultimately concurred on a four source Qur n sunna consensus and analogy theory of law Instead M lik and Medina emphasizes that the four Sunn schools of law madh hib emerged during the formative period as distinctive consistent yet largely unspoken legal methodologies and persistently maintained their independence and continuity over the next millennium

Big Disconnect Giles Slade, 2012-08-07 Smart phones and social media sites may be contemporary fixations but using technology to replace face to face interactions is not a new cultural phenomenon

Throughout our history intimacy with machines has often supplanted mutual human connection This book reveals how consumer technologies changed from analgesic devices that soothed the loneliness of a newly urban generation to prosthetic interfaces that act as substitutes for companionship in modern America The history of this transformation helps explain why we use technology to mediate our connections with other human beings instead of seeking out face to face contact Do electronic interfaces receive most of our attention to the detriment of real interpersonal communication Why do sixty million Americans report that isolation and loneliness are major sources of unhappiness The author provides many insights into our increasingly artificial relationships and a vision for how we can rediscover genuine community and human empathy The

Disconnected Generation Josh McDowell, 2000-07-16 The real battle is not in the amoral and immoral influences of our culture but in the hearts of our young people says author and speaker Josh McDowell in The Disconnected Generation And our young people are losing hope because they feel isolated and alienated from their parents They are the disconnected generation This book shows parents and youth workers how to understand and close the isolation gap to form nurturing enduring relationships that can withstand cultural influences As a companion to The Disconnected Generation the video curriculum resources provides five video sessions from Josh McDowell offering practical steps that every adult can take to close the emotional gap between themselves and their children Beacon, 1999 Friendship 911 Josh McDowell, Frank

Peretti, 2000-06-26 This is an eight session youth group meeting experience designed to equip young people to respond to the toughest crises their peers may face Addressing each issue covered in the Friendship 911 Collection students learn how to help their friends with Tender Loving Care and in the process become a powerful witness of God s love and care Students also complete daily activities between group sessions 35 activities in all An optional video supplement augments each youth group session with powerful visuals and dramatic illustrations of youth struggling with each of the eight crises Shaded sections in the Friendship 911 Leader s Guide indicate when and how to use this optional video supplement NKJV, The

Concordance Translated Memories Bettina Hofmann,Ursula Reuter,2020-02-26 This volume engages with memory of the Holocaust as expressed in literature film and other media It focuses on the cultural memory of the second and third generations of Holocaust survivors while also taking into view those who were children during the Nazi period Language loss language acquisition and the multiple needs of translation are recurrent themes for all of the authors discussed By bringing together authors and scholars often both from different generations countries and languages and focusing on transgenerational and translational issues this book presents multiple perspectives on the subject of Holocaust memory its impact and its ongoing worldwide communication Dyslexia: Neuronal, Cognitive and Linguistic Aspects Yngve

Zotterman,2013-10-22 Dyslexia Neuronal Cognitive however it is stressed that this part of the brain has visuo spatial capabilities The discussion is followed by a presentation of ophthalmological findings among children with learning difficulties The book then proceeds to the relationship of dyslexia with visual problems and linguistic awareness In this regard questions on the ability of children to be able to read prior and during their school years are raised The selection ends with a discussion on how to treat dyslexia through the use of computers This book is a great source of information for neurophysiologists psychophysicologists ophthalmologists and teachers who are interested in helping children learn to read and write

Opportunity Elmer Anderson Carter,1923 Teaching Compassion: Humane Education in Early Childhood Mary Renck Jalongo,2013-07-23 In response to highly publicized incidents of school violence educators across the United States and in many other nations are seeking effective ways to prevent and modify aggressive and anti social behaviors in students One of the major recommendations of the research is that efforts to prevent cruelty need to begin early during the early childhood years of birth through age eight The focus of Teaching Compassion Humane Education in Early Childhood is guiding young children to accept responsibility for and to be kind in their interactions with fellow human beings animals and the environment Although humane education is a relatively new concept in the field of early childhood education professionals in the field are very familiar with many of the related concepts including promoting positive interpersonal interactions teaching children the skills of self regulation giving children experience in caring for living things and protecting the environment This edited volume is an interdisciplinary compendium of professional wisdom gathered from experts in the fields of education child development science psychology sociology and humane organizations As the book amply documents the concept of humane education is powerful integrative timely and appropriate in work with young children Teaching Compassion Humane Education in Early Childhood shows how it is possible for adults dedicated to the care and education of young children to balance attention to the cognitive and affective realms and in so doing to elevate the overall quality of early childhood programs for children families and communities
