Imagining Apocalypse NA NA, 2016-04-30 This volume brings together essays by specialists in different disciplines on the cultural expression of apocalypse in particular in anglophone science fiction of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Approaching these works from historical philosophical linguistic and literary perspectives the contributors examine the relationship between secular and spiritual apocalypse connecting the fiction and films to their historical moment Not surprisingly war recurs throughout this material as a critical turning point fulfilment of prophecy or prelude to a new age In particular the essays explore the issue of whether modern apocalypse is seen as an ending or a beginning considered under its political ethnic and gendered aspects Among the writers covered are H G Wells Olaf Stapledon and such contemporary figures as Michael Moorcock J G Ballard and Storm Constantine Current Issues in English Language Methodology Eva Alcón Soler, 1998 An interesting contribution to the discussed task of adopting an effective methodology in the teaching of English as a foreign language Aspects such as the application of a cognitive theory the usage of electronic mail in the classroom the making of informative glossaries take that question again and new proposals are actualised Linguistic analysis of literary data Fareed Hameed Al-Hindawi, Musaab Al-Khazaali, 2017-03-15 Literary data is supposed to reflect real life situations and is at the same time written in a style of writing that is considered as highly elevated Such reasons have prompted the contributors to this book to deal with this type of data Such attempts range from semantics to stylistics and pragmatics This book introduces linguistic analyses of literary data from different points of view This involves dealing with various linguistic topics and different types of literary data Hence many models are presented to analyze the linguistic

aspects of those topics in the light of the genre in which those topics are undertaken Accordingly different results are yielded from those analyses and this makes each type of analysis distinct from the other ones It is hoped that this work will be a useful source to all those whether theoretically practically or both interested in linguistics pragmatics of literature applied linguistics and literary stylistics A Comprehensive Reference Dictionary of Linguistics, A-D Huseynaga

Ventola,Arsenio Jesús Moya Guijarro,2009-10-29 Positioned within the field of linguistics and multisemiotic discourse analysis the theme of this book is the multifaceted interaction between text and image in different discourse genres and it offers critical views on how we talk and show our experience of the world around us Investigating Tasks in Formal

Language Learning María del Pilar García Mayo,2007 This book contributes to the growth of interest in task based language learning and teaching that has been seen in recent years It brings together research that focuses on various aspects and effects of pedagogic task design and presents work that uses tasks to examine oral interaction written production vocabulary and reading lexical innovation and pragmatics in different formal language learning contexts and in different languages English as a second foreign language French German Italian Spanish as foreign languages It also provides guidelines for task classification sequencing and design The book is addressed to both professionals and students interested in second language acquisition research It will also be of use to professionals involved in language pedagogy and curriculum design Handbook of English and Celtic Studies in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland N. H.

Keeble,1988 Issues and Options in Language Teaching Hans Heinrich Stern,John Patrick Brierley Allen,1992

Second Language Reading and Vocabulary Learning Thomas Huckin,Margot Haynes,James Coady,1993 Reading ability and vocabulary knowledge are two of the most important components of performance in a second language especially in academic settings Each depend on the other as vocabulary knowledge is the single most important factor in reading comprehension while reading is the single most important means by which intermediate and advanced learners acquire new words This symbiotic relationship is the subject of this volume The authors argue that building vocabulary through reading is a fruitful but complex activity that needs better understanding and more careful guidance This book is unique in its emphases on original research Eight of the 14 chapters are empirical studies published for the first time including classroom based case studies experimental research and think aloud protocol analysis In every chapter consideration is given to the pedagogical implications and possible applications of the research findings Lengthy editorial comments at the end of each chapter reinforce this practical concern

Research in Reading and Writing Makhan Lal Tickoo,1994 Constructing Professional Discourse Concepción Orna-Montesinos,2012 This book explores the fascinating role that language plays in the construction of non verbal objects by mapping out the ontological meaning of the specialised concepts and the domain specific knowledge embedded in them In doing so it provides a comprehensive linguistic insight into the discourse of professional domain specific communities and hence into the communication practices and procedures of those communities In this respect the book offers a response to the claims made by many of the most influential applied linguists today such as Vijay Bhatia 1993 2004 John Swales 1990 2004 or Ken Hyland 2002 among others who have consistently defended the need for applied linguistic research into the textual generic and social perspectives on the under researched interrelatedness of the discursal and professional practices of a discipline Specifically this book provides readers with an integrative multi perspective approach to the study of professional domain specific discourses While it mainly draws on the tenets of genre theory and discourse semantics it also nurtures from the theoretical and empirical foundations of applied linguistics cognitive linguistics corpus linguistics and ontological engineering The book starts from the analysis of domain specific texts as final written products with specific lexico grammatical semantic and rhetorical features to later enquire into the written products as textual artefacts closely linked to the social context of production and interpretation of the text This integrative approach provides fresh new insights into the way the processes of writing are affected by the community specific institutional and socio historical circumstances in which domain specific texts are produced
