Dishonourable Seduction:

DISHONOURABLE SEDUCTION Angela Wells, Amie Hayasaka, 2018-03-10 Ginny's father collapsed and now she must manage the company while he's ill. But she's only just graduated college and the task is proving too much for her. After she makes a serious blunder, one of her customers, a gorgeous Greek man, comes to talk to her. Furious, he says that he's a friend of her father's and he wants to discuss business over dinner. She's afraid that if she turns him down, he'll stop doing business with them, so she accepts his invitation for her father's sake. But Ginny finds herself swept away by his clever advances and before she knows it, she's kissing him.

This volume discusses gender in an urban context in European, North American, and colonial towns from the fourteenth to the twentieth century, casting new light on the development of medieval and modern settlements across the globe. Organised into six thematic parts covering economy, space, civic identity, material culture, emotions, and the colonial world, this book comprises 36 chapters by key scholars in the field. It covers a wide range of topics from women and citizenship in medieval York to gender and tradition in nineteenth and twentieth-century South African cities, reframing our understanding of the role of gender in constructing the spaces and places that form our urban environment. Interdisciplinary and transnational in scope, this volume analyses the individual dynamics of each case study while also examining the complex relationships and exchanges between urban cultures. It is a valuable resource for all researchers and students interested in gender, urban history, and their intersection and interaction throughout the past five centuries.
