Discipline A Sourcebook Of Fifty Failsafe Techniques For Parents:

Discipline James Windell, 1991 Dysinhibition Syndrome Rose Wood, 1999-06 A godsend for every parent and professional who has ever been confronted with the perplexing and frustrating challenges of unpredictable and uncontrollable outbursts that seemingly have no rhyme or reason This book provides some realistic approaches and a wide variety of simple doable techniques for coping at home in school and in life The author is a social worker who first struggled with these challenges in her own home and then with her clients The ADHD Parenting Handbook Colleen Alexander-Roberts, 2006-08-01 Practical advice for parents from parents and proven techniques for raising hyperactive children without losing your temper Like, Whatever Rebecca R. Kahlenberg, 2008 Sane savvy and practical advice for parents on challenges they face with their teens including sex driving risky behaviors discipline money health athletics faith travel college admissions single and blended families and more Mom in Daycareland Carlota Lindsay, Marshall Lindsay, 2002-04-15 Letter to the Reader Mom in Daycareland is about children but it is addressed both to parents and to providers of child care in the hope that these pages will help them understand each others needs and the stresses they experience in their respective childrearing and caregiving activities For the childrens sake they must see each other not as antagonists but as partners in this most important of all careers molding the future of the human race Today the need for child care is more widely accepted by the general public than it was years ago We used to think that children should be reared at home and that a mothers job was to take care of them Now all this has changed Early every morning millions of mothers and fathers drive their children to child care providers and leave them there most often without feeling uneasy or guilty What has happened to cause this shift in our attitudes Why have we given up ideas that once seemed sacred and replaced them with a pragmatic way of doing things that would have made our grandmothers frown The authors remember a time when it was expected that Dad would go off to work every morning leaving Mom and the kids at home He had a job outside the home and brought back the paycheck she did the housework and cooking took care of the children Only occasionally were the children entrusted to someone else as when the parents went to a dinner party or a movie and had a local high school student over to sit or drove the kids to Grandmas for the night There were exceptions of course but this was the accepted pattern Today that pattern while still prevalent in some families is rare The social and economic realities of our country have changed radically and the structure of family life has had to adapt There are several reasons for the shift and others will undoubtedly surface at a later date but what seems to be the most important among them are the following Firstly to make ends meet todays parents are obliged more and more to share the burden of earning the wages Both Mom and Dad need full time work if the family is to survive financially or if it is to satisfy the standard of living they are used to In the meantime who takes care of the children while both are at work Secondly another reason that helps explain why Mom works even when there is no pressing financial need for her to do so is the realization that women have an equal right to achieve their potentialities in the world of the professions and of labor Finally and perhaps most importantly an ever increasing number of households are managed by single parents When Mom or Dad is the only provider in the family no one is going to suggest that she or he stay home and watch the children That single job is essential to the survival of a family in an already precarious financial bind Even when the children are sick the single parent has to report to work in order to keep that precious job For these and other reasons the need for child care is a simple reality in our present society and the trend is likely to continue In most communities throughout the country groups of interested people argue that the availability of child care services is insufficient to meet current needs let alone the demands of a growing population We would like to talk about ourselves briefly as authors Both of us have had life careers in higher education In 1980 we devoted ourselves to child care and started a proprietary child care center in the Northwest It began small and then in time grew to a size of 35 preschoolers From the beginning Carlota operated the center from 6 30 a m to 6 00 p m as director teacher public relations person cook and janitor only recently has she begun coming home in the late afternoon Marshall was frequently teacher maintenance person and accountant It was difficult yet rewarding work and it taught us many things The purp The Parenting Tightrope Julie Stitt,1994 Parents Who Think Too Much Anne Cassidy,2010-10-06 With the baby boom generation came the genre of parenting books that told parents how to teach their kids everything from toilet training to developing self esteem Generally the message has been go easy on your child but hard on yourself It is starting to become apparent especially in the best of families that giving your kids lots of choices validating their feelings at great peril to your own and providing enough individual attention for each child is creating a generation of kids over whom we have no control Cassidy argues that this comes from over thinking our role as parents We ve pondered every step so much that the juice the joy and worst of all our confidence is gone The reasons are clear We have fewer children later in life so we ve had more time to ponder We ve grown up just as research on infant and child development has come of age so there s no shortage of material to think about As a generation we ve prided ourselves on self improvement and we bring the same zeal to child improvement We re less likely to live close to our families and so are more likely to seek out expert solutions To counter this thinking Cassidy will suggest keeping the big picture in mind what kind of people do you really want your kids to be Honest kind cooperative empathetic It may mean losing sight of whether enough play dates are scheduled for the week and if you ve positively reinforced the latest creative endeavor but it will bring back your instincts about what is important to your family as a whole and to your kids to become decent people The Assault on Parenthood Dana Mack,2000 This book grapples with a disturbing paradox the very institutions that are supposed to be helping parents in the difficult enterprise of child rearing are often infected with pronounced anti family views Despite the attempt by politicians and social theorists alike to posture as being on the side of family values Dana Mack argues we live in a culture that is increasingly family unfriendly and indeed subtly undermines the efforts of parents when they are working harder than ever to raise their children properly At
