Disclosures from a Compulsory Interview Doina Virginia Vladuca, James K. McCollum, 2003-02 Toward a Prosecutor for the European Union Volume 1 Katalin Ligeti, 2012-12-17 In an era in which the EU's influence in criminal law matters has expanded rapidly attention has recently turned to the possible creation of a European Public Prosecutor's Office. This two volume work presents the results of a study carried out by a group of European criminal law experts in 2010-2012 with the financial support of the EU Commission whose aims were to examine in detail current public prosecution systems in the Member States and to scrutinise proposals for a new European office. Volume 1 begins with thorough descriptions of 20 different national legal systems of investigation and prosecution addressing a range of evidential and procedural safeguards. These will serve as a point of reference for all future research on public prosecutors. Volume 1 also contains a series of cross cutting studies of the key issues that will inform debates about the creation of a European Public Prosecutor's Office including studies of vertical cooperation in administrative investigations in subsidy and competition cases the accession of the EU to the ECHR judicial control in cooperation in criminal matters mutual recognition and decentralised enforcement of European competition law. Volume 2 which will be published in 2013 presents a draft set of model rules for the procedure of the European Public Prosecutor's Office and continues with a set of comparative studies of the national legal systems that cover the gathering of evidence seizure of assets arrests tracking and tracing prosecution measures procedural safeguards the presumption of innocence and the right to silence access to the file and victim reconciliation. Volume 2 concludes with the final report written by Professor Ligeti summarising the findings of the group and reporting on the prospects for the proposed reform.
