2015 Political Discourse, Media and Translation Christina Schaeffner, 2009-12-14 This volume addresses the role played by translation in international political communication and news reporting and brings to light the usually invisible link between politics media and translation The contributors explore the interrelationship between media in the widest sense and translation with a focus on political texts institutional contexts and translation policies These topics are explored from a Translation Studies perspective thus bringing a new disciplinary view to the investigation of political discourse and the language of the media The first part of the volume focuses on textual analysis investigating transformations that occur in translation processes and the second part examines institutional contexts and policies and their effects on translation production and reception

Discourse in Translation Said Faiq, 2018-11-21 This book explores the discourse in and of translation within and across cultures and languages From the macro aspects of translation as an inter cultural project to actual analysis of textual ingredients that contribute to translation and interpreting as discourse the ten chapters represent different explorations of global theories of discourse and translation Offering interrogations of theories and practices within different sociocultural environments and traditions Eastern and Western Discourse in Translation considers a plethora of domains including historiography ethics technical and legal discourse subtitling and the politics of media translation as representation This is key reading for all those working on translation and discourse within translation studies and linguistics

The Role of Discourse Analysis for Translation & in Translator Training Christina Schäffner, 2000

Empirical studies in translation and discourse Mario Bisiada, 2021-02-15 The present volume seeks to contribute some studies to the subfield of Empirical Translation Studies and thus aid in extending its reach within the field of translation studies and thus in making our discipline more rigorous and fostering a reproducible research culture The Translation in Transition conference series across its editions in Copenhagen 2013 Garmersheim 2015 and Ghent 2017 has been a major meeting point for scholars working with these aims in mind and the conference in Barcelona 2019 has continued this tradition of expanding the sub field of empirical translation studies to other paradigms within translation studies This book is a collection of selected papers presented at that fourth Translation in Transition conference held at the Universitat Pompeu Fabra in Barcelona on 19-20 September 2019

Rethinking Translation Lawrence Venuti, 2018-10-25 Originally published in 1992 Rethinking Translation makes the translator's activity more visible by using critical theory It examines the selection of the foreign text and the implementation of translation strategies the reception of the translated text and the theories of translation offered by philosophers critics and translators themselves The book constitutes a rethinking that is both philosophical and political taking into account social and ideological dimensions as well as questions of language and subjectivity Covering a number of genres and national literatures this collection of essays demonstrates the power wielded by translators in the formation of literary canons and cultural identities and recognises the appropriative and imperialist movements in every act of translation

Expression and Interpretation in Language Susan Petrilli, 2011-12-31 This book features the full scope of Susan Petrilli's important work on signs language communication and of meaning interpretation and understanding. Although readers are likely familiar with otherness interpretation identity embodiment ecological crisis and ethical responsibility for the biosphere Petrilli forges new paths where other theorists have not tread. This work of remarkable depth takes up intensely debated topics exhibiting in their treatment of them what Petrilli admires: creativity and imagination. Petrilli presents a careful integration of divergent thinkers and diverse perspectives. While she abandons hope of attaining a final synthesis or an unqualifiedly comprehensive outlook, there remains a drive for coherence and detailed integration. The theory of identity being advocated in this book will provide the reader with an aid to appreciating the identity of the theorizing undertaken by Petrilli in her confrontation with an array of topics. Her theory differentiates itself from other offerings and at the same time is envisioned as a process of self-differentiation. Petrilli's contribution is at once historical and theoretical. It is historical in its recovery of major figures of language; it is theoretical in its articulation of a comprehensive framework. She expertly combines analytic precision and moral passion, theoretical imagination and political commitment.

Kajian Bahasa Dan Terjemahan, 2006. Issues on linguistic and translational studies in Malaysia: papers of a seminar. Pragmatics in Translation. Daria Dayter, Miriam A. Locher, Thomas C. Messerli, 2023-03-16. This Element addresses translation issues within an interpersonal pragmatics frame. The aims of this Element are twofold: first, we survey the current state of the field of pragmatics in translation; second, we present the current and methodologically innovative avenues of research in the field. We focus on three pragmatics issues: relational work, participation structure, and mediality, that we foreground as promising loci of research on translational data. By reviewing the trajectory of pragmatics research on translation, interpreting over time, and then outlining our understanding of the Pragmatics in Translation as a field, we arrive at a set of potential research questions which represent desiderata for future research. These questions identify the paths that can be productively explored through synergies of the linguistic pragmatics framework and translation data. In two case study chapters, we offer two example studies addressing some of the questions we identified as suggestions for future research. This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core.

Communication Across Cultures
Basil Hatim, 1997. While the literature on either contrastive linguistics or discourse analysis has grown immensely in the last twenty years, very little of it has ventured into fusing the two perspectives. Bearing in mind that doing discourse analysis without a contrastive base is as incomplete as doing contrastive analysis without a discourse base, the specific aim of this book is to argue that translation can add depth and breadth to both contrastive linguistics as well as to discourse analysis. Authentic data from both spoken and written English is used throughout to add clarity to theoretical insights gained from the study of discourse processing. Each aspect of the model proposed for the analysis of texts is related separately to a problem of language processing and in domains as varied as translation, interpreting, language teaching, etc. The global objectives pursued in this volume are the training of future linguists and the sensitization of users of language in general to the realities
