Discourse On Gender Gendered Discourse In The Middle East:

Discourse on Gender/Gendered Discourse in the Middle East Boaz Shoshan, 2000-09-30 In this book Shoshan asserts that in contemporary Middle Eastern countries the field of struggle that cultures constitute provides the ground for contesting and transforming the hegemonic patriarchal discourse and recently began to give voice especially in women's literature to feminist critique Examining the gender issue as reflected in a variety of discourses that take place in contemporary Middle Eastern cultures the contributors explore how feminine images are constructed in tradition bound societies and in the context of nationalist projects Both Islamic societies in Middle Eastern countries and the Jewish society in Israel are addressed in the discussion of the role of women's writing and other means of expression in challenging traditional patriarchal concepts including nationalism While the conclusion about the manipulation that patriarchal discourse performs on women's images supports the available scholarship the emphasis in this volume on the specific expressions of feminine discourse will be a welcome addition to the existing literature The essays in volume range from a discussion of the poetic strategies used to reconcile the roles of women to the shifts in the image of the Turkish woman as expressed in popular historical writing Some of the essays examine the rituals that gather women together as well as the maternal role women play in the national religious community Combining the two usually separately discussed cultural notions of discourse and gender this unique collection of articles addresses them in their various forms in both Islamic societies and the State of Israel for women and business scholarship on the Middle East has grown there is no text in English that has brought critical insights from the Middle East together in a single volume In examining women s entrepreneurship in the Middle East this book aims to challenge Global North assumptions about the disempowering impacts of Islamic Shari a and governance Referring to the constraints of Islam on women s subjectivity and agency greatly misunderstands religious identity of both men and women and the way in which public administration and private sector institutions are organized in very different ways to Western regions This timely text expands and adds new insights to the theorizations of women s entrepreneurship in the Middle East through unravelling spatialized themes and incorporates contemporary themes including an Islamic science reading of women work and venturing changing families and entrepreneurship development women managing social crises Islamization governance and women Islamic feminist activisms and entrepreneurship representations of women s entrepreneurship on social media and women s collectives leading entrepreneurship via Facebook entrepreneurship It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of entrepreneurship gender work and organizations Arab Studies Journal ,2005 Journal of South Asian and Middle Eastern Studies ,2002 Gender and Communication at Work Mary Barrett,Marilyn J. Esther Fuchs, 2014-07 The last two decades have given rise to a proliferation of scholarship by Israeli feminists working in diverse fields ranging from sociology to literature anthropology and history As the Israeli feminist movement continually decentralizes and diversifies it has become less Eurocentric and heterocentric making way for pluralistic concerns Collecting fifteen previously published essays that give voice to this diversity Israeli Feminist Scholarship showcases articles on Ashkenazi Mizrahi Palestinian and lesbian identities as well as on Israeli women's roles as mothers citizens and activists and soldiers Citing evidence that these scholars have redefined their object of inquiry as an open site of contested and constructed identity luminary Esther Fuchs traces the history of Israeli feminism Among the essays are Jewish historian Margalit Shilo's study of the New Hebrew Woman sociologist Ronit Lentin's analysis of gendered representations of the Holocaust in Israeli culture peace activist Erella Shadmi on lesbianism as a nonissue in Israel and cultural critic Nitza Berkovitch's examination of womanhood as constructed in Israeli legal discourse Creating a space for a critical examination of the relationship between disparate yet analogous discourses within feminism and Zionism this anthology reclaims the mobilizing inclusive role of these multifaceted discourses beyond the postmodern paradigm Globalisation, Geopolitics, and Gender in Professional Communication Louise Mullany, Stephanie Schnurr, 2022-08-01 This edited collection investigates the linguistics of globalisation geopolitics and gender in workplace cultures in a range of different contemporary international settings The chapters examine how issues of globalisation gender and geopolitics affect professionals in different workplace contexts including domestic workers IT professionals teachers university staff engineers entrepreneurs CEOs of different corporates including locally based businesses as well as multinationals farmers co-operative leaders NGO leaders bloggers healthcare assistants and caregivers Taking different sociolinguistic approaches to exploring language and the geopolitics of gender at work in Dubai Kuwait Kenya Uganda Morocco Nigeria Malaysia Turkey Belgium Switzerland New Zealand Uganda the UK and the USA each chapter focuses on a range of salient geopolitical issues which often have global applicability but which may also be subject to more localised socio-cultural variation The chapters critically discuss issues of gendered language perceptions and representations of workplace cultures discrimination the role of gendered stereotyping and deeply ingrained socio-cultural myths about gender and the importance of examining the intersections of identity all of which continue to persist as barriers to equality and inclusion in workplaces worldwide Despite the variation and diversity in professions and geopolitical contexts captured across the chapters remarkably similar issues of gender discrimination and persisting inequalities are identified and critically discussed thus pointing to the global nature of these issues The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Israeli Family and Community Hannah Naveh, 2003 This volume of essays by prominent researchers in Israeli history and society is the second of two interconnected volumes engaging with the concept of women's time It brings a feminist gaze to a wide variety of fascinating issues facing contemporary Israeli society first by examining the private natural sphere of women's experience and then by addressing the interaction between the private and the national spheres as reflected in the media and in religious and military discourses. Women's time involves resistance to self-evident and often patriarchal truths and knowledge and by creating a model for the investigation of other obliterated narratives serves the well-being of all in Israel and beyond Feminist Studies, 2000

Book Review Index, 2003 Vols 8-10 of the 1965-1984 master cumulation constitute a title index New Books on Women and Feminism, 2001 Index Islamicus, 2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2000 The Future of Text and Image Ofra Amihay, Lauren Walsh, 2012 The question of the relation between the visual and the textual in literature is at the heart of an increasing number of scholarly projects and in turn the investigation of evolving visual-verbal dynamics is becoming an independent discipline. This volume explores these profound literary shifts through the work of twelve talented and in some cases emerging scholars who study text and image relations in diverse forms and contexts. The inter-medial conjunctures investigated in this book play with and against the traditional roles of the visual and the verbal. The Future of Text and Image presents explorations of the incorporation of visual elements into works of literature of visual writing modes and of the textuality and literariness of images. It focuses on the special potential literature offers for the combination of these two functions. Alongside examinations of major forms and genres such as memoirs, novels and poetry, this volume expands the discussion of text and image relations into more marginal forms for instance collage books, the PostSecret collections of anonymous postcards and digital poetry. In other words while exploring the destiny of text and image as an independent discipline, this volume simultaneously looks at the very literal future of text and image forms in an ever-changing technological reality. The essays in this book will help to define the emergent practices and politics of this growing field of study and at the same time reflect the tremendous significance of the visual in today's image culture Index of Conference Proceedings British Library. Document Supply Centre, 2001 Bibliographic Index, 2006 Feminist Politics, Activism and Vision Luciana Ricciutelli, Angela Miles, Margaret McFadden, 2004 This volume brings together essays of remarkable variety and fresh insight by leading feminists from Africa, Asia, Latin America, North America, Europe and Scandinavia. With clear-eyed realism and passionate optimism, these articles raise crucial historical, organizational, ethical, conceptual, strategic and practical issues facing feminists today. The personal accounts, political speeches and academic articles collected here reveal a vibrant and multifaceted transnational feminist community redefining wealth, work, peace, democracy, sexuality, family, human rights, development, community and citizenship. They provide a sense of inter-related issues being addressed at local, national, regional and global levels in generative ways which both honor local and global movements.
