Quotations in John Michael A. Daise, 2019-12-26 Michael A Daise identifies literary features found in six quotations in the Fourth Gospel suggesting they should be revisited as clusters rather than as discrete units Three quotations are the only ones whose introductory formulae explicitly ascribe them to Isaiah three are the only ones cast as being remembered by Jesus disciples and each of these groupings forms an inclusio within the Book of Signs which when combined with the other produces a chiasmus to Jesus public ministry Daise examines these clusters in three studies addressing their exegetical issues and theological implications After an introductory apologia for an historical critical and theological approach the first two studies distil narrative themes embedded in the Isaianic and remembrance inclusios The third study then reconstructs the synthesis of these themes created by the chiasmus and translates its key elements into theological categories Daise concludes that while the Isaianic inclusio brings closure to the Book of Signs by disclosing the angelic cause of the Jews unbelief the remembrance inclusio creates an anticipation of the Book of Glory by casting Jesus as poised to establish a new dynasty with the casting out that angelic cause Daise further argues that this broader storyline carries ramifications for an array of motifs in the Fourth Gospel s theological taxonomy in particular its christology soteriology eschatology ecclesiology and pneumatology

Revue de Qumrân ,2005 American Book Publishing Record ,2003 The Qumran Chronicle ,2004 Halakhah in the Making Aharon Shemesh, 2009-11-18 Halakhah in the Making offers the first comprehensive study of the legal material found in the Dead Sea Scrolls and its significance in the greater history of Jewish religious law halakhah Aharon Shemesh s pioneering study revives an issue long dormant in religious scholarship namely the relationship between rabbinic law as written more than one hundred years after the destruction of the Second Temple and Jewish practice during the Second Temple The monumental discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls in Qumran led to the revelation of this missing material and the closing of a two hundred year gap in knowledge allowing work to begin comparing specific laws of the Qumran sect with rabbinic laws With the publication of scroll 4QMMT a polemical letter by Dead Sea sectarians concerning points of Jewish law an effective comparison was finally possible This is the first book length treatment of the material to appear since the publication of 4QMMT and the first attempt to apply its discoveries to the work of nineteenth century scholars It is also the first work on this important topic written in plain language and accessible to nonspecialists in the history of Jewish law

Prophecy After the Prophets? Kristin De Troyer, Armin Lange, Lucas L. Schulte, 2009 It is often said that prophecy came to an end in the early Second Temple period This volume investigates how the Dead Sea Scrolls help to better understand Israelite Jewish prophecy and Israelite Jewish prophetic texts However it not only contributes to the study of prophecy and the prophetic books of the Hebrew Bible by analyzing the textual history and interpretative history of prophetic books the former being concerned with the manuscripts of prophetic books found in Qumran and elsewhere the latter being focused on para prophetic texts and commentaries it also investigates the phenomenon of active prophecy i e ongoing prophetic activities after the early Second Temple period long after prophecy came to its so called end In the first part of this volume Matthias Henze deals with the paraprophetical literature from Qumran Martti Nissinen addresses the relation between Qumran Peshar hermeneutics and Ancient Near Eastern omen divination Timothy H Lim asks if why and in what sense the psalms were considered to be prophecies or prophetic In the second part of the volume George J Brooke asks the question Was the Teacher of Righteousness Considered To Be a Prophet and Katell Berthelot shows in her study of 4QTestimonia 4Q175 that the Teacher of Righteousness was not the only active prophet in the 2nd cent BCE The third part of the volume looks at a wider definition of prophecy Esther Eshel shows how the tree imagery of the Genesis Apocryphon s symbolic dreams participates in a Jewish tradition that is attested in both earlier and later texts Leo G Perdue demonstrates that apocalyptic developed out of both prophecy and mantic wisdom Perdue also provides a survey of mythical mantic sages in the Ancient Near East and mantic sages and mantic wisdom in biblical and ancient Jewish literature Finally in the fourth part of the volume Armin Lange offers an example of how the Dead Sea Scrolls help to solve cruxes interpretum in the prophetic books of the Hebrew Bible For this purpose he studies The Genre of the Book of Jonah in light of the paratextual literature from Qumran
