Coping When Your Spouse Dies:

Your Spouse's Death Debbie J.,2012-03-02 ABOUT THE BOOK The bond between a husband and wife is one of the most intimate emotional and physical bonds of any human relationship Your spouse is the person you share your hopes and dreams with your partner friend co parent traveling companion and confidante all in one Regardless of how the roles are defined within the relationship a spouse is the person with whom you share your life It is therefore no surprise that losing a spouse in death is ranked by psychologists as the single most stressful life event followed only by divorce and separation Whether a spouse dies suddenly and unexpectedly or whether death comes over time and with some warning the surviving spouse must come to terms with the loss and eventually find a way to pick up the pieces and move on EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK When under such extreme and sustained stress emotional and physical symptoms follow Stress causes the body to go into a physiological fight or flight reaction and if stress is profound or prolonged the body remains in a constant state of alarm which can lead to vulnerability to disease and even death Stress impairs cognitive functioning leads to depression fear anxiety and anger and leaves the body susceptible to a whole host of physical issues Stress causes the immune system to be compromised and it becomes much harder to fight off even common illnesses like flu or a cold Ulcers asthma migraines and hypertension are common effects associated with stress Development of more serious issues such as coronary heart disease and cancer is also facilitated by stress Stress brought on by the death of a spouse commonly brings on depression sleeping too much insomnia and disturbing dreams just to mention a few problems Buy a copy to keep reading More Sainly

Philosophy and the Epistemic Marginalization of Women Jonathan Chimakonam,Louise du Toit,2018-04-20 This book examines the underexplored notion of epistemic marginalization of women in the African intellectual place Women s issues are still very much neglected by governments corporate bodies and academics in sub Saharan Africa The entrenched traditional world views which privilege men over women make it difficult for the modern day challenges posed by the neglect of the feminine epistemic perspective to become obvious Contributors address these issues from both theoretical and practical perspectives demonstrating what philosophy could do to ameliorate the epistemic marginalization of women as well as ways in which African philosophy exacerbates this marginalization Philosophy is supposed to teach us how to lead the good life in all its ramifications why is it failing in this duty in Africa where the issue of women s epistemic vision is concerned The chapters raise feminist agitations to a new level beginning from the regular campaigns for various women s rights and reaching a climax in an epistemic struggle in which the knowledge controlling power to create acquire evaluate regulate and disseminate is proposed as the last frontier of feminism Dealing with Death and Dying Sheila Lelly Blake,1976 Adult Development and Aging Julie Hicks-Patrick,Dr. Bert Hayslip (Jr),Lisa Hollis-Sawyer (Professor),2020 When Your Lover Dies Robert Brigham,2008-05 This book explores key questions about women s rights and gender equality in the wake of political turmoil demographic dislocation institutionalized violence and deep economic disparities These questions focus on the balancing and enforcement of rights viewed as a secular construct within societies with deeply entrenched cultural and religious mores and also examine the competing and sometimes contradictory claims of individual rights on the one hand and community concerns or imperatives on the other How does a society commence the project of gender equality after a brutal history of conflict dislocation dispossession exclusion distinction and discrimination How are the foundations laid and legal strategies adopted and cultivated How does a society balance what is perceived as the secular nature of rights enforcement within a context of deeply entrenched religious mores or customary norms And ultimately why does there persist such subordination disadvantage and discrimination despite the existence of constitutional and legal protections for women Utilizing the South African process of legal transformation as a paradigm author Penelope Andrews applies this model to Afghanistan another contemporary context of transformation These two societies serve as counterpoints through which she engages in a nuanced and novel way with the many broader issues that flow from the attempts in newly democratic societies to give effect to the promise of gender equality Surviving the Death of Your Spouse Deborah S.
