Core Kassten Alonso, 2011-03-01 THIS INTENSE AND COMPACT NOVEL crackles with obsession betrayal and madness and was an Oregon Book Award Finalist for fiction 2005 As the narrator becomes fixated on his best friend's girlfriend his precarious hold on sanity rapidly deteriorates into delusion and violence This story can be read as the classic myth of Hades and Persephone Core rewritten for a twenty first century audience as well as a dark foreboding tale of unrequited love and loneliness Alonso skillfully uses language to imitate memory and psychosis putting the reader squarely inside the narrator's head In addition deliberate misuse of standard punctuation blurs the distinction between the narrator's internal and external worlds A sense of alienation and Faulknerian grotesquerie permeate this landscape where desire is borne in the bloom of a daffodil and sanity lies toppled like an applecart in the mud

Colour and colour naming: crosslinguistic approaches João Paulo Silvestre, Esperança Cardeira, Alina Villalva, 2016-09-01 The Colour and Colour Naming conference held in 2015 at the University of Lisbon offered a chance to explore colour naming processes from a cross linguistic approach The conference was an initiative of the working group Lexicography And Lexicology from a Pan European Perspective itself part of the COST action European Network of Lexicography The working group investigates the various ways by which vocabularies of European languages can be represented in dictionaries and how existing information from single language dictionaries can be displayed and interlinked to better communicate their common European heritage The proceedings gather together a selection of studies originally presented at the conference

The first section of the volume outlines a Pan European perspective of colour names the second section is devoted to the categorisation and lexicographic description of colour terms
