Coretext Online A Handbook For Writers:

CoreText Maxine Hairston, John J. Ruszkiewicz, Daniel E. Seward, 1997 Coretext Maxine Hairston, 1997-02-01

CoreText is an innovative handbook written collaboratively by two writing teachers and a software designer. Not only does it give succinct clear answers to questions about usage style and the strategies of research but it provides crucial information about electronic sources and documentation for writers doing research online. It also aids writers who want to use the graphic capacities of computers to produce visually attractive documents. The key features of CoreText are emphasis on the role of audience and purpose in the writing process, a chapter on critical thinking and persuasion, three chapters on crafting sentences and using language responsibly, a chapter on essentials for ESL writers, two chapters on document design and model documents, a comprehensive research section with up to date information about using and documenting electronic sources, complete documentation guides for four citation systems: ACW, APA, CMS and MLA. Finally, CoreText's unique trim size, lie flat design and fresh use of four colors throughout make information easily accessible. Available in both print and electronic versions, CoreText is a do it yourself manual for writers working with today's tools for solving today's problem.

The Writer's Handbook J. Paul Dyson, The 2015 edition of firstwriter.com's bestselling directory for writers provides details of over 1 200 literary agents, book publishers and magazines including revised and updated listings from the 2014 edition and over 380 brand new entries. Tips and advice are provided by top literary agent Andrew Lownie of the Andrew Lownie Literary Agency Ltd, named by Publishers Marketplace as the top selling agent worldwide. Subject indexes for each area provide easy access to the markets you need with specific lists for everything from romance publishers to poetry magazines to literary agents interested in thrillers. International markets become more accessible than ever with listings that cover both the main publishing centres of New York and London as well as markets in other English speaking countries. With more and more agents, publishers and magazines accepting submissions by email, this international outlook is now more important than ever. There are no adverts, no advertorials and no obscure listings padding out hundreds of pages. By including only what's important to writers, contact details for literary agents, publishers and magazines, this directory is able to provide more listings than its competitors at a substantially lower price. The book also allows you to create a subscription to the firstwriter.com website for free until 2016. This means you can get free access to the firstwriter.com website where you can find even more listings and also benefit from other features such as advanced searches, daily email updates, feedback from users about the markets featured, saved searches, competitions, listings, searchable personal notes and more. I know firsthand how lonely and dispiriting trying to find an agent and publisher can be. So it's great to find a resource like firstwriter.com that provides contacts, advice and encouragement to aspiring writers. I've been recommending it for years now. Robin Wade, literary agent at the Wade Doherty Literary Agency Ltd and long term firstwriter.com subscriber.
