Corneilles Performative Metaphors:

Corneille's Performative Metaphors Judd David Hubert, 1997      Corneille's Irony Nina C. Ekstein, 2007 Ekstein presents a pioneering study that analyzes the full extent and intricacy of irony in the theater of France's greatest baroque playwright Pierre Corneille      Pierre Corneille Revisited Claire L. Carlin, 1998 Series Editors Bernth Lindfors University of Texas at Austin Robert Lecker McGill University David O'Connell Georgia State University David William Foster Arizona State University Janet P. rez Texas Tech University TWAYNES UNITED STATES AUTHORS ENGLISH AUTHORS and WORLD AUTHORS Series present concise critical introductions to great writers and their works Devoted to critical interpretation and discussion of an author's work each study takes account of major literary trends and important scholarly contributions and provides new critical insights with an original point of view An Authors Series volume addresses readers ranging from advanced high school students to university professors The book suggests to the informed reader new ways of considering a writer's work A reader new to the work under examination will after reading the Authors Series be compelled to turn to the originals bringing to the reading a basic knowledge and fresh critical perspectives      Perfection Anne Lynn Birberick, 2008 This collection of essays focuses on the concept of perfection in various domains during the 17th century in France

Dictionary of Seventeenth-Century French Philosophers Luc Foisneau, 2008-12 No Marketing Blurb      Women Reading Corneille Claire L. Carlin, 2000 Women Reading Corneille Feminist Psychocriticisms of Le Cid is a series of readings from the famous seventeenth century French play Pierre Corneille's Le Cid 1637 Using a reader centered approach this study applies five different examples of feminist psychoanalytic literary criticism to Corneille's masterpiece in order to illustrate the enduring interest of the play At the same time it explores several issues in the ongoing debates within feminist criticism Topics such as biological essentialism identity construction and the conflict between Anglo American and French feminist theory are discussed in the work of Carol Gilligan Jessica Benjamin Jane Gallop Juliette Mitchell Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva Le Cid furnishes the framework for five divergent readings grounded in the seventeenth century context despite their emphasis on feminist reading practices of our era      French Studies, 2000      Europe 1450 to 1789 Jonathan Dewald, 2004 Online version of the 6 volume work published New York Charles Scribner's Sons 2004      Beyond the Page Angélica Jiménez Huizar, 2008 This scholarly monograph offers a fresh look at modern experimental poetry in Spanish Portuguese and French produced in Latin America The work uses a variety of interdisciplinary approaches to examine how these experimental poetic forms can be best interpreted and understood through a performative lens Examined structures and textures inherent in these performed works vary they include paintings typographical art optophonetic visual representations of sounds techniques and music to name only a few examples The investigative scope of the study is large it includes texts from Mexico Argentina Chile Uruguay and Brazil and includes texts in Spanish Portuguese and French Through detailed analysis Professor Huizar demonstrates what we can read in the visual and sound components of these poems as performance on a page and while these may be limited on the bound text they do produce a performativity that is predictive of current technological innovations of the canon whose performative and interactive aspects include the latest multi media technologies resulting in forms as cyper poetry and hypertextuality electronic music and pictorial language The textual analysis is informed by a variety of semiotic performance theories Elam de Marinis and Pavis The final chapter deals with currents in today s Latin America poetry world with an emphasis on the technological and cultural energies that are revolutionizing the poetic and linguistic content of the region This is one of the first studies in this area of research and opens new ground for specialists It offers a comprehensive as well as an analytical view of the interdisciplinary practices something lacking in previous studies in Latin American poetry Recommended Professor Laura Lopez Fernandez University of Canterbury L'Esprit Créateur, 1998 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997 Book Review Index, 2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index American Book Publishing Record, 1997-05 Current Contents. Arts & Humanities Institute for Scientific Information, Conjunctions Laurie Edson, 1996 Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 2000 Nottingham French Studies, 2001 Metaphoric Thinking Eli Rozik, 2008 A Study of Nonverbal Metaphor in the Arts and Its Archaic Roots Allegory of Literary Representation as Hybrid in Corneilles Lillusion Comiq Juanita Villena-Alvarez, 1997 Monstrous hybrid works such as Corneille s L illusion comique Diderot s Le neveu de Rameau and Arrabal s La nuit est aussi un soleil resist genre based theory and defy categorization Hybrid appropriates a meaning valid for all three texts since the term contains the notion of a differentiation mutation and deviation as well as creation This attests to a certain similarity among the texts which is paradoxically founded on their individual differences for hybrid is only hybrid because of its distinction from other elements within a system Thus from these three works this study focuses on the deviation inherent in hybridization that constantly propels meaning from one point to another

Jean Genet and the Semiotics of Performance Laura Oswald, 1989 When Jean Genet the enfant terrible of the French theater died on April 15 1986 he left a rich and controversial literary legacy Genet a homosexual and ex convict wrote about events and in a language that could ruffle the complacency of the most sophisticated reader His work can be seen as a struggle of the social outcast to be heard from beyond the borders of the dominant heterosexual culture This challenging book tracks the effects of this struggle in Genet s novels plays film and political essays by means of a general semiotics of performance By staging a dialogue between Genet and writers such as Derrida Bakhtin Metz Ricoeur and Benveniste Laura Oswald pursues the question of performance in the form of a debate rather than that of a closed theoretical system Her approach puts into play relations between semiotics and philosophy and provides a means of understanding the relationship between Genet s poetics and his radical politics By focusing on the role of the double in Genet s literary imagination and by reading Genet with his others in the realm of theory Oswald comes to grips with the overriding concerns of a man whose life in literature was never very far from his life as prisoner as outcast as self proclaimed exile
