Thanks to Shakespeare Hollywood and the formidable Elizabeth I herself Elizabethan England remains a place and time that fascinates us Modern England still has visible memorials of the Elizabethans the houses they built the objects they cherished the patterns they imposed upon the very landscape A L Rowse's famously vivid portrayal of the Elizabethan world is a detailed account of that society and tradition from the lowest social class to the men and women who governed the realm A major new introduction from Christopher Haigh offers both a reflection on Rowse's masterpiece and an assessment of the Elizabethan Age Diplomacy, Roger Makins and the Anglo-American Relationship Richard Wevill, 2016-05-23 The history of Britain after the Second World War is essentially the story of her loss of great power status Writers discussing this decline often focus on those sources of power which are tangible and capable of measurement the size of a country's armed forces her Gross Domestic Product or her energy reserves But there are other real sources of power which are not so easily measured The morale of a nation the quality integrity and stability of a country's political system and a nation's sense of unity are all intangible elements So is diplomatic skill which is central to the ability of one country to influence another Roger Makins the British Ambassador to Washington 1953-1956 was one of the most prominent and powerful diplomats of his time His career was unusual for a Foreign Office official in that such a large part of it took place in Washington and London and was centred on Anglo American relationships This book describes his life times and the important players he dealt with on both sides of the Atlantic It is history seen through the perspective of the officials trying to serve their countries interests and as such it sheds a new light on how the special relationship between Britain and America developed It also shows the impact on policy a civil servant who worked and negotiated with almost every important American and British politician and official of his time can have Carpenter: The Rugby World Cup's Father Steve Tomlin, 2023-07-15 The extraordinary story of John Kendall Carpenter captain of the England rugby team educationalist and godfather to the Rugby World Cup All for a Scrap of Paper Joseph Hocking, 1914 Twentieth-century British Literary Biographers Steven Serafin, 1995 Designed to introduce the lives and works of those individuals who influenced the development of literary biography as a recognizable genre during the century Portraits and Views Alfred Leslie Rowse, 1979 A.L. Rowse and Cornwall Philip Payton, 2005 This gripping biographical study published here for the first time in paperback explores the immensely complicated relationship that existed between A L Rowse and his native Cornwall The Byrons and Trevanions Alfred Leslie Rowse, 1978 The Autobiography of the Working Class John Burnett, David Vincent, David Mayall, 1984 Jersey Performance Register American Jersey Cattle Club, 1957 Vol 1 contains official production records and official type ratings accepted during the 8 year period January 1 1943 through December 31 1950 inclusive In Search of C.S. Lewis Kenneth

Tynan, Alan John Percivale Taylor, Malcolm Muggeridge, 1983 Oliver Franks Alex Danchev, 1993 Lord Franks was an exceedingly deliberate man who paradoxically embarked upon his various careers as don mandarin diplomat banker provost pillar of state almost by accident A moral philosopher by training and inclination Franks had a hand in the making of both war and peace in the middle decades of the twentieth century He secured Marshal Aid for Europe s post war recovery program He had a major role in negotiating the North Atlantic Treaty Later he was responsible for several unusually influential official reports including that on Oxford University in the 1960s and most recently and controversially on the British Government s handling of the Falklands crisis An extensively researched and thoroughly readable study this book looks at the life of a man who succeeded in combining great intellect and public service to a rare degree Oliver Franks though personally self effacing was an immensely influential figure at the center of public life for many years The Jersey Bulletin ,1953 The Writers Directory ,1996 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library,1985 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1974 The Gypsy Debate Joanna Richardson,2017-02-13 Jo Richardson explores the extent to which modes of discourse reflect antipathy towards gypsies and travellers and control and shape the treatment of this minority group by the rest of society The focus is housing policy but her discussion has a wide application
