themselves in humanising their organization community and society should read Remaking Ourselves Enterprise and Society This book is about adherence to human values at an institutional level and its starting point is the belief that human beings have basic goodness which in turn is reflected in the desire to be of help to others and to do good Professor Rao introduces the Indian concept of Spandan Heartbeat Spandan is operationalized through a process of diagnosis discovery and development enabling organizations to achieve an optimal balance between what are defined as transactional transformational and terminal human values This leads to management and organizations developing sensitivity to the needs of others which they come to understand When such sensitivity becomes integral to its work ethic and culture an organization is able to temper its commitment to task with humanity and it becomes functionally humane Experience suggests not surprisingly that organizations that can achieve this optimal balance between results and relations achieve higher employee commitment and productivity and increased accommodative spirit that better equips them to deal with difficult times This exciting addition to Gower's Transformation and Innovation Series will enlighten business leaders governmental and non governmental policy makers management educators organization developers and researchers Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India Kelly Pemberton, 2010 Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India combines historical data with years of ethnographic fieldwork to investigate women's participation in the culture of Sufi shrines in India and the manner in which this participation both complicates and sustains traditional conceptions of Islamic womanhood Kelly Pemberton's fieldwork offers an assessment of the contemporary circumstances under which a woman may be recognized as a spiritual authority or guide despite official denial of such status and an examination of the discrepancies between the commonly held belief that women cannot perform in the public setting of shrines and her own observations of women doing precisely that She demonstrates that the existence of multiple models of master and disciple relationships have opened avenues for women to be recognized as spiritual authorities in their own right Specifically Pemberton explores the work of performance recitation and ritual mediation carried out by women connected with Sufi orders through kinship and spiritual ties and she maps shifting ideas about women's involvement in public ritual events in a variety of contexts circumstances and genres of performance She also highlights the private petitioning of saints the Prophet and God performed by poor women of low social standing in Bihar Sharif These women are often perceived as being exceptionally close to God yet are compelled to operate outside the public sphere of major shrines usage decisions and credit line usage is found to be inversely related to macroeconomic conditions Resumen de autor
