Theological Libraries and Library Associations in Europe, 2022-08-15 During the past 50 years theological libraries have confronted secularisation and religious pluralism along with revolutionary technological developments that brought not only significant challenges but also unexpected opportunities to adopt new instruments for the transfer of knowledge through the automation and computerisation of libraries This book shows how European theological libraries tackled these challenges how they survived by redefining their task by participating in the renewal of scholarly librarianship and by networking internationally Since 1972 BETH the Association of European Theological Libraries has stimulated this process by enabling contacts among a growing number of national library associations all over Europe The Oxford Handbook of Early Christian Studies Susan Ashbrook Harvey, David G. Longenecker, David E. Wilhite, 2023-08-24 The first three hundred years of the common era witnessed critical developments that would become foundational for Christianity itself as well as for the societies and later history that emerged thereafter The concept of ancient Christianity however along with the content that the category represents has raised much debate This is in part because within this category lie multiple forms of devotion to Jesus Christ multiple phenomena and multiple permutations in the formative period of Christian history Within those multiples lie numerous contests as varieties of Christian identity laid claim to authority and authenticity in different ways The Cambridge History of Ancient Christianity addresses these contested areas with both nuance and clarity by reviewing synthesizing and critically engaging recent scholarly developments The 27 thematic chapters specially commissioned for this volume from an international team of scholars also offer constructive ways forward for future research Dimitrie Cantemir, Salvation of the Sage and Ruin of the Sinful World Ioana Feodorov, Yulia I. Augustine's Theology of Preaching Peter T. Sanlon, 2014-07-01 Scholarship has painted many pictures of Augustine the philosophical theologian the refuter of heresy or contributor to doctrines like Original Sin but the picture of Augustine as preacher says Sanlon has been seriously neglected When academics marginalize the Sermones ad Populum the real Augustine is not presented accurately In this study Sanlon does more however than rehabilitate a neglected view of Augustine How do the theological convictions that Augustine brought to his preaching challenge sustain or shape our work today By presenting Augustine's thought on preaching to contemporary readers Sanlon contributes a major new piece to the ongoing reconsideration of preaching in the modern day a consideration that is relevant to all branches of the twenty first century church Scrutinizing the Signs of the Times in the Light of the Gospel Johan Verstraeten, 2007 Gaudium et spes Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World was promulgated on December 7 1965 It mirrors a new spirit of openness of the Catholic Church to the world as well as a new historical consciousness based on a self understanding of the Catholic Church as linked with mankind and its history by the deepest bonds GS 1 This historical consciousness resulted in a method of social discernment which inspired by John XXIII was articulated by Gaudium et spes in terms of scrutinizing the signs of the times and of interpreting them in the light of the gospel GS 4 Conscious of the need to revisit the pastoral constitution of Vatican II the Centre for Catholic Social Thought at the Catholic University of Leuven has organised two international expert seminars The first expert seminar 6 7 September 2003 was rather explorative and focused on the relevance of catholic social thought in its actual context with special attention paid to the signs of the times in an era of globalisation The discussion on the contemporary signs of the times revealed the necessity to clarify the theoretical and practical implications of the methodology of social discernment and particularly of a social hermeneutic in the light of the gospel This became the theme of a second expert seminar Leuven Louvain la Neuve 9 11 September 2004 the discussions of which are the background to this book In the Shadow of the Incarnation Peter William Martens, 2008 The essays in this volume offer readers a fresh orientation and groundbreaking analyses of the figure of Jesus in late antiquity

Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur, 2004 Insignis Sophiae Arcator Gernot Rudolf Wieland, Carin Ruff, Ross Gilbert Arthur, 2006 Some thirty years ago Michael Herren burst on the medieval Latin scene with his edition and translation of the notoriously difficult Hisperica Famina and followed this a few years later with his translation of the prose works of Aldhelm Notice was given that a junior scholar unafraid to tackle some of the most obscure complex and arcane Latin wished to make it accessible to non Latinists as well as to those Latinists who lacked his particular skills Not content with labouring alone in that field Herren gathered scholars in Toronto to a conference on Insular Latin Studies the proceedings of which he published two years later Over the years he shed considerable light on such obscure texts and authors as Virgilius Maro Grammaticus John Scottus Eriugena and the Cosmographia by the pseudonymous Aethicus Ister His research trail led him again and again to Ireland and the Irish contribution to early medieval Latinity and to English Carolingian and even Italian culture Recognizing the rich diversity of medieval Latin Herren in 1990 founded The Journal of Medieval Latin and has as its editor provided a home for medieval Latinists of all stripes The fourteen colleagues and former students who have contributed to the present volume wish to express their thanks to Herren for creating a venue in which medieval Latinists can come together exchange ideas learn from each other and teach each other In their careers they have all learned from Herren who either supervised their theses or performed editorial magic on articles submitted to The Journal of Medieval Latin The essays here gathered focus though not exclusively on the insular Latin of Ireland and England as well as on some Irish centres on the Continent such as St Gall The Hisperica Famina so strongly associated with Herren though mentioned only in passing by some of the studies here provides the half line which was chosen as the title and the most suitable address to Herren insignis sophiae arcator excellent teacher of wisdom
