Edem CM, 2019-02-14 The entire work is divided into three parts Each part has its accompanying chapters with corresponding introductions and conclusions It is the incarnation that necessitated the self emptying and self abasement of Christ It is the same mystery that underlies his passion and crucifixion and eventual resurrection The mystery of incarnation capped with experiential events forms the tap root of this global vision of Christ in the poor It is central to his theology of the poor Christ in the poor and the poor in Christ The incarnation and experiential events furnish the inclination and orientation Vincent s thought pattern possesses Such penetration and globalization process concerning the word incarnate are in line with the Church s permanent need of theological reflection The special inclination acts as a veneer that links other aspects It forms a continuum permeating and illumining the mystical link of the Vincentian Christ in the poor and the poor in Christ Correspondence, Conferences, Documents: July 1656 - Nov. 1657 Saint Vincent de Paul, 1996 The Reports to the Hague Conferences of 1899 and 1907 James Brown Scott, 1917 SCOTT copy 1 From the John Holmes Library collection Annual Report of the American Historical Association American Historical Association, 1905 The Conference of Berlin United States.
