Correspondences A Family History In Letters:

Correspondences Anne Stevenson.1974 Correspondences Anne Stevenson, 1974 Narrative and Voice in Postwar Poetry Neil Roberts, 2014-05-12 Poetry in English since the Second World War has produced a number of highly original narrative works as diverse as Derek Walcott's Omeros Ted Hughes Gaudete and Anne Stevenson's Correspondences At the same time poetry in general has been permeated by narrative features particularly those linguistic characteristics that Mikhail Bakhtin considered peculiar to the novel and which he termed dialogic This book examines the narrative and dialogic elements in the work of a range of poets from Britain America Ireland Australia and the Caribbean including poetry from the immediate postwar years to the contemporary and novel like narratives to personal lyrics Its unifying theme is the way in which these poets with such contrasting styles and from such varied backgrounds respond to and creatively adapt the language worlds and hence the social worlds in which they live The volume includes a detailed bibliography to assist students in further study and will be a valuable resource to undergraduate and postgraduate students of contemporary poetry Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry, 1960 - 2015 Wolfgang Gortschacher, David Malcolm, 2020-12-21 A comprehensive and scholarly review of contemporary British and Irish Poetry With contributions from noted scholars in the field A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry 1960 2015 offers a collection of writings from a diverse group of experts They explore the richness of individual poets genres forms techniques traditions concerns and institutions that comprise these two distinct but interrelated national poetries Part of the acclaimed Blackwell Companion to Literature and Culture series this book contains a comprehensive survey of the most important contemporary Irish and British poetry The contributors provide new perspectives and positions on the topic This important book Explores the institutions histories and receptions of contemporary Irish and British poetry Contains contributions from leading scholars of British and Irish poetry Includes an analysis of the most prominent Irish and British poets Puts contemporary Irish and British poetry in context Written for students and academics of contemporary poetry A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry 1960 2015 offers a comprehensive review of contemporary poetry from a wide range of diverse contributors The Bloomsbury Guide to Women's Literature Claire Buck, 1992 Provides biographies novel synopses poems plays and essays by or about women and discusses feminist literature Conventional Correspondence Willemijn Ruberg, 2011-09-09 Egodocuments are cherished because of the view they supposedly provide into the innermost feelings of individuals in past and present Recent research however has shown the complexity of genres like autobiographies diaries and letters Building on critical and historical research into autobiographical writing this book describes epistolary practices of the Dutch elite in the period 1770 1850 Analysing how cultural ideals of sincerity individuality and naturalness influenced the style and contents of letters the book also addresses the functions of letter writing in family life like the formation of an adolescent identity and the relationship between parents and children Correspondence was a vital means by which class and gender identities were performed and the appropriate emotions were shaped Research Methodologies for Auto/biography Studies Kate Douglas, Ashley Barnwell, 2019-06-03 This collection of short essays provides a rigorous rich collaborative space in which scholars and practitioners debate the value of different methodological approaches to the study of life narratives and explore a diverse range of interdisciplinary methods Auto biography studies has been one of the most vibrant sub disciplines to emerge in the humanities and social sciences in the past decade providing significant links between disciplines including literary studies languages linguistics digital humanities medical humanities creative writing history gender studies education sociology and anthropology. The essays in this collection position auto biography as a key discipline for modelling interdisciplinary approaches to methodology and ask what original and important thinking can auto biography studies bring to discussions of methodology for literary studies and beyond And how does the diversity of methodological interventions in auto biography studies build a strong and diverse research discipline In including some of auto biography s leading international scholars alongside emerging scholars and exploring key subgenres and practices this collection showcases knowledge about what we do when engaging in auto biographical research Research Methodologies for Auto biography Studies offers a series of case studies that explore the research practices reflective behaviours and ethical considerations that inform auto biographical research Geography and Genealogy Jeanne Kay Guelke, 2016-04-22 Genealogy has become a widely popular pursuit as millions of people now research their family history trace their forebears attend family reunions and travel to ancestral home sites Geographers have much to contribute to the serious study of the family history phenomenon Land records maps and even GIS are increasingly used by genealogical investigators As a cultural practice it encompasses peoples emotional attachments to ancestral places and is widely manifest on the ground as personal heritage travel Family history research also has significant potential to challenge accepted geographical views of migration ethnicity socio economic class and place based identities This volume is possibly the first ever book to address the geographical and scholarly aspects of this increasingly popular social phenomenon It highlights tools and information sources used by geographers and their application to family history research Furthermore it examines family history as a socio cultural practice including the activities of tourism archival research and DNA testing Women's Literature Claire Buck, 1994 The first reference guide to the extraordinary riches of women s writing through the ages and throughout the world Over 5 000 A Z entries covering individuals works and movements Poets of Great Britain and Ireland Since 1960 Vincent B. Sherry, 1985 Essays on British and Irish poets published in the years between 1960 and 1985 whose methods and outlooks as reflected in their works display the diversity and vitality of poetry during a twenty five year period that ranged from experimental modernism to traditional forms renewed by the shifts of attitude in the 1960s Authors of Their Lives David A. Gerber, 2006-01-01 2008 United States Postal System's Rita Lloyd Moroney Award In the era before airplanes and e mail how did immigrants keep in touch with loved ones in their homelands as well as preserve links with pasts that were rooted in places from which they voluntarily left Regardless of literacy level they wrote letters explains David A Gerber in this path breaking study of British immigrants to the U S and Canada who wrote and received letters during the nineteenth century Scholars have long used immigrant letters as a lens to examine the experiences of immigrant groups and the communities they build in their new homelands Yet immigrants as individual letter writers have not received significant attention rather their letters are often used to add color to narratives informed by other types of sources Authors of Their Lives analyzes the cycle of correspondence between immigrants and their homelands paying particular attention to the role played by letters in reformulating relationships made vulnerable by separation Letters provided sources of continuity in lives disrupted by movement across vast spaces that disrupted personal identities which depend on continuity between past and present Gerber reveals how ordinary artisans farmers factory workers and housewives engaged in correspondence that lasted for years and addressed subjects of the most profound emotional and practical significance Words International .1988 The Way You Say the World Anne Stevenson, 2003 Major 20th-century Writers ,1991 The Manuscript Inventories and the Catalogs of Manuscripts, Books, and Periodicals: Manuscript inventories, Q-Z Arthur and Elizabeth Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America, 1984 New Letters David Ray,1974 The Autobiography and Letters of Mrs. M.O.W. Oliphant Mrs. Oliphant (Margaret), 1899 Mrs Oliphant nee Margaret Oliphant Wilson was a Scottish writer of domestic realism historical novel and tales of the supernatural ,1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases The Autobiography and Letters of Mrs. M. O. W. Oliphant, Arranged and Ed. by Mrs. Harry Coghill Mrs. Oliphant (Margaret), 1899 The Big Horse and Other Stories of Modern Macedonia Milne Holton, 1974 It was not until after the Second World War and the successful struggle of Tito's partisans and the forging of a new Yugoslavia that Macedonia realized in some measure her autonomy as a republic federated within that new state It was only then that she had her own university that Macedonian became the teaching language of her schools and that she achieved a variety of self government It is pride in these achievements that has shaped the consciousness of her people This collection offers for the first time in English representative stories of 20 writers all of whom are still living and all of whom began their careers after 1945 They are the writers of at least two generations Some were partisans but some never knew war and are still in their twenties or thirties. Their stories range from rather traditional work in imitation of Russian or European masters to radical experiments in the anti story
