Notebooks enables us to see the thinker in dialogue with his times and with himself Volume 4 of this 11 volume series includes the first five of Kierkegaard's well known NB journals which contain in addition to a great many reflections on his own life a wealth of thoughts on theological matters as well as on Kierkegaard's times including political developments and the daily press Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced

Curiosities in Proverbs Dwight Edwards Marvin, 1916

The Common Good, 2019-11-01 Of the five books in the series N F S Grundtvig Works in English this fourth volume on Grundtvig as a politician and contemporary historian is perhaps the most surprising He is best known globally as the founding father of the People's High School with his emphasis on lifelong learning and the living word in interactive conversation In Denmark his next greatest achievement is his hymn writing and song writing Few think of Grundtvig as a politician In public discourse he is linked to Nordic mythology and church matters rather than to parliamentary democracy or contemporary history However Grundtvig was a historian and a politician His historical interests were the driving force of his entry into public politics as is demonstrated by the texts in this volume
