Finding More on the Mat Michelle Marchildon, 2015-05-11 Practicing yoga is an invitation to live up to our potential as human beings So our mat becomes a catalyst for transformation When we assume a yoga pose it is not necessarily the shape of the body that counts Rather it is a chance to create an offering of the highest intention in our hearts Practicing becomes our path as we grow not just older but better wiser and stronger We become so much more both for ourselves and for those we love every time we surrender to something greater like Grace Grace is in many ways reflective of the attitude we bring to the mat It is the difference between a yoga practice that leaves you radically transformed and an exercise class It's the difference between feeling full of hope and potential or feeling like a schmuck Our attitude creates the distinction between growing better wiser and stronger on the mat or afraid that we're going to die every time we bend over In the beginning the author explains I did not know that I needed Grace After all I had gone through the better part of my life without anything nearly looking like Grace You should see me dance or sing Oh my God A goose suffering an epileptic attack would describe my attempts at being graceful I would never be mistaken for a soul sister Then one day on my mat struggling for the millionth time to touch my toes I gave up I said To hell with it And that s when it happened The tension in my body released and I lowered down another six inches toward the floor I got so excited I almost pulled a hamstring All the years I had been practicing yoga I thought what I needed to touch my toes and to get better in general was more effort But in fact I needed more Grace Living with ease is Grace Living with forgiveness and acceptance is Grace Taking the good with the bad is Grace Saying yes first rather than no is Grace Trying new experiences with a light heart is Grace Knowing that we are filled with forgiveness just because we were born is Grace You will need equal parts of redemption and emancipation to find transformation which is not easy Today the author explains I am stronger and more vibrant than ever before I hauled my tired old ass out of a steep depression to live a better life I hope to make the second half of my life my best achievement yet The journey begins with Grace

The Workbook on Coping as Christians Maxie D. Dunnam,1988-09 Is there anyone who doesn t need help in coping with the problems of day to day living Maxie Dunnam defines coping as contending or struggling successfully Every day we are confronted with stressful situations broken relationships or other problems that threaten to undo or defeat us Some of these problems cannot be solved completely but are instead recurring They keep coming back and we have to deal with them again and again we have to cope A Hug & a Kiss and a Kick in the Pants Kay Kuzma,1987 This is my favorite childcare book right next to How to Talk So Kids Will Listen Listen So Kids Will Talk by Faber and Mazlish Why First of all every chapter has useful ready to use and easy to remember tips instead of having to wade through pages and pages and pages of child rearing philosophy to get to it I ve used many of them dealing with my four children and with great results Secondly the author has a refreshingly positive and compassionate view of children which is important and contagious Her term creative disciplinarian is interesting teaching one to become aware and alert to a given situation instead of just dishing out punishment in robot like fashion This book has many important elements of several other child rearing books that I ve read but all in one place that you ll want to reach for again and again Amazon com A Source of Embarrassment Audrey Lillian Barker,1974 Roman The Bank Robber Diaries Danny King,2002 I d like to make a withdrawal please Living with it Elizabeth Parsons Kirchner,1988 Coping with Ethical Dilemmas in Psychotherapy Martin Lakin,1991 Case on Appeal , Freedom dreaming futures for Black youth: Exploring meanings of liberation in education and psychology research Seanna Leath,Lauren Mims,Misha Inniss-Thompson,2023-07-21 Research elucidating the developmental processes in Black children and youths schooling and educative experiences is increasing e g Carter Andrews et al 2019 Daneshzadeh Jackson Neal Jackson 2018 Yet the notion of freedom dreaming in relation to Black children and youth has received less attention within the fields of education and psychology We draw from U S historian Professor Robin D G Kelley s concept of freedom dreaming to illuminate not only what we are fighting against in the education of Black youth e g racial bias and discrimination unfair disciplinary practices and criminalization and Black youths overrepresentation in special education and underrepresentation in gifted and talented programs but also what we are fighting for liberatory educational praxis that build on Black youths individual and cultural strengths In the current call freedom dreaming refers to 1 actively uplifting the complex lives and stories of Black children and youth in educational settings 2 elevating Black children and youths intersectional experiences related to ability gender identity sexuality age and socio economic class and 3 highlighting the innovative work of scholars who understand and value community power in efforts to advance educational change We draw on Dr Bettina Love s 2019 call for educational freedom wherein she states The practice of abolitionist teaching is rooted in the internal desire we all have for freedom joy restorative justice restoring humanity not just rules and to matter to ourselves our community our family and our country with the profound understanding that we must demand the impossible by refusing injustice and the disposability of dark children p 7
