Coping With Failure The Therapeutic Uses Of Rhetoric:

Coping with Failure David Payne, 1989 Consolatory Rhetoric Donovan J. Ochs, 1993 Consolatory Rhetoric explores Greco Roman funeral rituals to reveal how opposing symbols functioned rhetorically to comfort communities afflicted by the death of one of their members While the bulk of rhetorical criticism interprets written texts Donovan Ochs broadens the traditional focus to consider non verbal symbols as well as action and object languages Ochs demonstrates that non discursive dimensions of Greco Roman burial rites held a place of particular persuasive significance in consoling the populace and he attributes funeral customs practiced in contemporary western civilization to the legacy left by the ancient Rhetoric and Civility Harold Barrett, 1991-01-01 This book relates the concept of civility to Greeks and Romans rhetorical disposition and incivility to indisposition The author discusses classical rhetorical theory and interprets it for use in all interactions exploring origins in infancy of the rhetorical disposition and the rhetorical indisposition He provides four case study chapters of the lives of individuals illustrating unhealthy narcissism and rhetorical failure Jim Jones Joseph McCarthy Paul Morel and Tiberius Gracchus These cases illustrate how unfavorable narcissism can give adverse direction to the rhetorical imperative and lead to problems in relationships Barrett offers a rhetorical corrective Redemption David A. Bobbitt, 2007-02-16 Martin Luther King Jr s I Have a Dream speech has become an icon of American public culture its imagery and words profoundly influencing the civil rights debate In The Rhetoric of Redemption Bobbitt applies Kenneth Burke's theory of guilt purification redemption in a close critical analysis of the speech developing and examining the implications of Burke's redemption drama in contemporary public discourse He studies the impact of the speech over time arguing that while King's speech contains an inspirational vision of national redemption it does so by omitting the real difficulties of overcoming America's racial divisions Modern Rhetorical Criticism Roderick P Hart, Suzanne Daughton, 2015-09-25 A comprehensive and up to date introduction to the analysis of public rhetoric Modern Rhetorical Criticism teaches readers how to examine and interpret rhetorical situations ideas arguments structure and style The text covers a wide range of critical techniques from cultural and dramatistic analysis to feminist and Marxist approaches A wealth of original criticism demonstrates how to analyze such diverse forms as junk mail congressional debates and traffic regulations as well as literature This long awaited revision contains new coverage of mass media feminist criticism and European criticism Independent Offices and Department of Housing and Urban Development Appropriations for 1971 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Independent Offices and Department of Housing and Urban Development, 1990 A Rhetoric of Science Lawrence J. Prelli, 1989 Part of a series in Studies in Rhetoric and Communication this book casts a fresh light on the process by which scientific claims are validated If scientists cannot justify their claims in positivistic terms how can a scientific claim be legitimatized Kenneth Burke and Contemporary European Thought Bernard L. Brock, 1995 Kenneth Burke and Contemporary European Thought reflects the present transitory nature of rhetoric and society Its purpose is to relate the rhetorical theory and critical approaches of American critic Kenneth Burke to four major European philosophers Jurgen Habermas Ernesto Grassi Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida as they discuss the nature of language and its central role in society Supporting transitory forces in society all these thinkers reject traditional scientific objective reductionist thought and point to language or symbols as the basis for understanding experience and knowledge Burke Habermas and Grassi approach language by establishing global theories In contrast to these global approaches Foucault and Derrida attack language and the human situation microscopically Michel Foucault examines discursive practices to discover relationships among the concepts of rhetoric knowledge and power Derrida focuses on the methods of difference and deconstruction because he believes human beings are trapped by their own language which inherently carries multiple meanings that need to be unpacked or deconstructed One More River to Cross Nigel I. Malcolm, 2008 In One More River to Cross Professor Nigel I Malcolm argues that the rhetoric of W E B Du Bois contributed to a sense of individual and group failure among African Americans Du Bois also created a need to explain the reasons for the failure of the group as well as that of individuals within the group specifically those within a segment of the black population deemed the talented tenth Professor Malcolm's work explores not only the root causes of this sense of failure among Blacks but also the way in which some members of the talented tenth seek to cope with failure Critiquing the writings of Derrick Bell Randall Robinson and Shelby Steele Professor Malcolm reveals the ways in which these authors explain the choice of an individual or a society between consolation and or compensation for perceived failures among Blacks He argues that whether an author emphasizes the past or the present the spiritual or the material the self or the society the inevitable result is a powerful rhetoric with implications for the future of race relations as well as advancement among Blacks in America The discussion of rhetoric is tied into the failure of the post civil rights era and to W E B Du Bois s earlier discussions of the talented tenth and its role among Blacks Twentieth-Century Rhetorics and Rhetoricians Michael G. Moran, Michelle Ballif, 2000-08-30 Rhetoric and rhetorical theory have been gaining in prominence throughout the 20th century As leaders in all fields give careful attention to issues in communication rhetoric becomes increasingly central to a range of disciplines Many of these leaders have shaped rhetorical theory through their work in other fields and rhetoric becomes more and more difficult to define and delimit This reference is a guide to major trends and developments in rhetoric and rhetorical theory during the last 100 years Included are alphabetically arranged entries for major and minor rhetoricians such as Mikhail Bakhtin Roland Barthes Wayne Booth Paul de Man Jacques Derrida Peter Elbow and Linda Flower Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography an analysis of the figure s rhetorical theory and a current bibliography of primary and secondary sources The figures included represent a range of rhetorical schools An extensive introduction discusses these schools and the volume concludes with extensive bibliographical material

Rhetoric and Style Nevin K. Laib,1993 An advanced composition book and true rhetoric places the process of writing in its social context Rather than promoting a particular method form or style it teaches the entire range of stylistic options available to writers explaining the advantages and drawbacks of various styles The book enables writers to make informed decisions about presenting ideas in discourse and incorporates the best of contemporary research into the wider rhetorical tradition Principles from classical and philosophical rhetoric as well as literary criticism are incorporated fully and a complete understanding of stylistic values is fostered Rhetoric in an Organizational Society George Cheney, 1991 What does it mean to speak with a collective voice This is the central question addressed in Rhetoric in an Organizational Society The author explains how in advanced industrial society many of the messages that individuals see and hear are associated with organizations of great size resources and power Organizational messages take the forms of advertising public relations issue advocacy doctrine annual reports policy statements newsletters declarations and so forth However given an accustomed emphasis on the individual citizens and scholars alike have difficulty interpreting messages that represent collectiveness Reading, Criticism, and Culture David Bartine, 1992 At the beginning of the nineteenth century American educators were still tied to the eighteenth century British methods of reading theory and teaching In this volume Bartine examines America's weaning from these traditions in education and the implications of the choices made by American educators between 1820 and 1950 Bartine explores the conservative cultural principles that influenced literary theory and the teaching of literature in universities and how those principles filtered down to reading theory and teaching at the elementary and secondary school levels Returning to a major theme in his Early English Reading Theory Bartine observes that until the early 1800s a long tradition of pragmatic reading theory and teaching in which a reader analyzes the literature and learns to think critically stood as a sophisticated alternative to romantic theory in which a reader is believed to be transported to a higher state of awareness through receptive reading Bartine presents evidence that the pragmatic theory was seen as a threat to romantic reading theory and the elitist cultural principles it attempted to preserve He demonstrates that the use of pragmatic theory declined in American education early in the nineteenth century and reveals the resultant century long regression of reading education from the primary level through the college level In the final chapter Bartine argues for the necessity of the return of education to new versions of pragmatic theory and teaching Freedom of Expression and Partisan Politics Craig R. Smith, 1989 Smith speech communication Calif State U Edge ,1996 Long Beach is president of the Freedom of Expression Foundation and has served as a political speechwriter for Gerald Ford campaign manager for Senator Bob Packwood and as a consultant to George Bush s presidential campaign He addresses topics connected with philosophical issues national security movies and television news and the arguments for and against an open system of political persuasion Notes but no coherent bibliography Acidic paper Cloth edition 28 95 not seen Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1988 Erika Lindemann, Professor of English Erika Lindemann, 1990-12 This bibliography offers teachers and researchers an annual

Bartine, 1989 Media, Consciousness, and Culture Bruce E. Gronbeck, Thomas J. Farrell, Paul A. Soukup, 1991-05 This book explores relationships among consciousness orality and literacy and culture an area of study in which the work of Walter Ong is integral Essays are constructed around notions articulated and argued for by Ong but then extended into new territories by other specialists in the fields he touches While all of the essays involve the study of media consciousness and culture to some degree voice a primary medium of communication receives special attention as do the effects of writing print and television in particular circumstances for example a media ecology of Iran today describes the interplay of primary orality of illiterate people secondary electronic orality and print The Gods of Televangelism Janice Peck, 1993 This work provides a critical interpretive study of two religious programmes The 700 Club and The Jimmy Swaggert Telecast and examines their appeal by situating them within the history of American religion and culture Constructing Clinton Shawn J. Parry-Giles, Trevor Parry-Giles, 2002 Bill Clinton is the embodiment and epitome of American politics in the postmodern mediated age Clinton's able marshaling of images which allowed him to retain popularity and position when faced with compelling obstacles marks him as the preeminent figure in a fluid and fluctuating era of image politics Constructing Clinton Hyperreality Presidential Image Making in Postmodern Politics pays particular attention to the collection of disparate sometimes connected often random images that create a site of political meaning we know as Bill Clinton former president of the United States Through analyses of unique image texts including The Man from Hope The War Room Primary Colors MTV s Biorhythms and PBS The American President Constructing Clinton focuses on the image of Bill Clinton as it was defined by and trapped in the hyperreality so characteristic of contemporary presidential politics
