Coping With Life On Insulin A Guide To Insulin Dependent Diabetes:

Coping with Life on Insulin Judith M. Steel, Margaret Dunn, 1987-01-01 Handbook of Pediatric Psychology in School Settings Ronald T. Brown, 2003-09-12 In recent years the escalating costs of health care have caused managed care programs to shift the delivery of pediatric psychological services away from specialized medical centers and into primary care and school settings One result has been a radical expansion of school psychology into issues of clinical intervention health promotion and the assessment of psychotropic medications School psychologists are now expected to either deliver or more likely to provide consultation regarding a wide variety of pediatric psychological services Because this is a recent phenomenon very few school based psychologists or allied health practitioners school counselors and social workers have received training in pediatric psychology The mission of this book is to provide them with a comprehensive and authoritative guide to their newly acquired responsibilities in such areas as psychotherapy psychopharmacology health promotion and prevention of disease This book is appropriate for anyone concerned with issues of pediatric psychology in school settings school psychologists pediatric psychologists clinical child psychologists as well as pediatricians and child psychiatrists

Evidence-Based Endocrinology Victor M. Montori, 2007-11-05 Internationally recognized experts pioneers and opinion makers in evidence based medicine EBM provocatively recast endocrine policy and practice in the light of EBM philosophy and principles The authors explain the past present and future of EBM consider its practical implications for endocrinology demonstrate what the evidence base is in EBM and present illustrative case studies by practicing evidence based clinicians Highlights include essays on why cost effective analyses are problematic the contrast between clinical investigations and large randomized trials the role of Cochrane reviews and meta analyses and the curriculum requirements for training evidence based endocrinologists Handbook of Pediatric Behavioral Healthcare Susan G. Forman, Jeffrey D.

Shahidullah, 2018-11-09 This handbook addresses the delivery of high quality pediatric behavioral healthcare services that are multitiered evidence based and integrated involving interprofessional collaboration across child serving systems such as pediatrician offices and schools The book sets forth a contemporary leading edge approach that reflects the relationship between biological and psychosocial development and the influence of multiple systems including the family community school and the healthcare system on child development and functioning It assists child focused providers in developing knowledge about the relationship between biological and psychosocial development and between pediatric physical health and behavioral health problems Chapters cover common chronic illnesses and behavioral conditions and include guidelines for screening assessment diagnosis prevention and coordinated intervention Chapters also include representative case studies that help illustrate efficacious effective service delivery approaches The handbook concludes with recommendations for future research and directions for integrated pediatric behavioral healthcare Topics featured in the Handbook include Behavioral health aspects of chronic physical health conditions including asthma diabetes chronic pain traumatic brain injury and cancer Physical health implications of behavioral health and educational problems including ADHD learning disabilities substance abuse and ASD Coping with chronic illness and medical stress Patient adherence to medical recommendations and treatments School reintegration after illness The Handbook of Pediatric Behavioral Healthcare is a must have resource for researchers professors and graduate students as well as clinicians therapists and other practitioners in clinical child and school psychology primary care medicine social work child and adolescent psychiatry public health health psychology pediatric medicine nursing behavioral therapy rehabilitation and counseling Cumulated Index Medicus ,2000
