Celebrating America's Pastimes: Baseball, Hot Dogs, Apple Pie and Marketing? Kacy Kyungok Kim, 2016-03-10

This book contains the full proceedings of the 2015 Academy of Marketing Science Annual Conference held in Denver Colorado. Marketing has become ubiquitous; it doesn't matter who you are, where you are, or what you are doing; you cannot escape it. In these times of instantaneous news information and entertainment, everyone is exposed to messages from the moment they awake until the minute they drift off to sleep. America spends the most money in the world on advertising and other marketing communication. So it could be said that marketing is America's pastime as much as the classics: baseball, hot dogs, and apple pie. Under the theme of Celebrating America's Pastimes: Baseball, Hot Dogs, Apple Pie, and Marketing, this volume discusses all of the good things that marketing can do. Showcasing research from academics, scholars, and practitioners from around the world, this volume provides insight and strategies that will help marketers move forward and focus on the positive that marketing can provide to consumers, stakeholders, and society. Founded in 1971, the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory, research, and practice. Among its services to members and the community at large, the Academy offers conferences, congresses, and symposia that attract delegates from around the world. Presentations from these events are published in this Proceedings series, which offers a comprehensive archive of volumes reflecting the evolution of the field. Volumes deliver cutting-edge research and insights complementing the Academy's flagship journals: Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science, JAMS, and AMS Review. Volumes are edited by leading scholars and practitioners across a wide range of subject areas in marketing science.
