Copious Hosting A Theology Of Access For People With Disabilities:

Copious Hosting Jennie Weiss Block, 2002-01-17 It is estimated that there are 43 million Americans with one or more physical or mental disabilities Over the past several decades the disability movement has grown in strength and sophistication attaining maturity with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 This landmark civil rights legislation ushered in a new era for people with disabilities Many religious people however well meaning are unfamiliar with the language and philosophy of the disability movement They unintentionally give offense by language and actions that reflect a by gone era This book aims to do two things to acquaint church and synagogue leaders with the history and philosophy of the disability movement and to provide resources from scripture and theology for thinking and preaching about disability in a new way

Disability and Community Living Policies Arie Rimmerman, 2017-07-14 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the roots of institutionalization deinstitutionalization legislation and policies of the twentieth century and twenty first century efforts to promote community living policies domestically and internationally particularly through the role of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities UNCRPD a landmark treaty adopted on 13 December 2006 Rimmerman shows that deinstitutionalization and community living cannot be examined only in terms of the number of institutions closed but also through the substantial change in values legislation and policies supporting personalization as well as the social participation of people with disabilities The book includes a significant exploration of United States legislation and important Supreme Court decisions compared with European policies toward community living Finally it discusses the importance of Articles 12 and 19 of the convention and demonstrates the case of Israel that has used the convention as a road map for proposing a new community living policy

Receiving the Gift of Friendship Hans S. Reinders, 2008-04-14 Does what we are capable of doing define us as human beings If this basic anthropological assumption is true where can that leave those with intellectual disabilities unable to accomplish the things that we propose give us our very humanity Hans Reinders here makes an unusual claim about unusual people those who are profoundly disabled are people just like the rest of us He acknowledges that at first glance this is not an unusual claim given the steps taken within the last few decades to bring the rights of those with disabilities into line with the rights of the mainstream But he argues that cannot be the end of the matter because the disabled are human beings before they are citizens To live a human life properly he says they must not only be included in our institutions and have access to our public spaces they must also be included in other people s lives not just by natural necessity but by choice Receiving the Gift of Friendship consists of three parts 1 Profound Disability 2 Theology and 3 Ethics Overturning the commonsense view of human beings Reinders s argument for a paradigm shift in our relation to people with disabilities is founded on a groundbreaking philosophical theological consideration of humanity and of our basic human commonality Moreover Reinders gives his study human vividness and warmth with stories of the profoundly disabled from his own life and from the work of Jean Vanier and Henri

Nouwen in L Arche communities      From 'Mission-Shaped' to 'Jesus-Shaped' Church Susan Beverley Cross, 2025-03-10
Hospitality is often invoked without question in Church of England discourse but the importance of the practice to contemporary mission has not been subject to detailed analysis This book provides otherwise elusive in depth theological examination of the scope of Christian understandings of hospitality From feasting in the Hebrew Scriptures and foot washing in the New Testament to online Communion during the COVID 19 pandemic hospitality is more than welcome or the evangelistic hospitality of the Alpha Course or Messy Church So this book encompasses racism ageing poverty tragedy storytelling minds bodies and belonging as well as the implications of allying food to Christian formation It shows that Christian hospitality has relevance not only to mission but also to ecclesiology eschatology disability theology and social and ecological justice      Women, Church, and Leadership: New Paradigms Eunjoo Mary Kim, Deborah Beth Creamer, 2012-04-06
This book is about leadership a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women s perspectives The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings provide new paradigms of church leadership theologically profound practically relevant and historically timely This volume a product of a collaborative process between academia and church promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society      Reconceptualising Disability for the Contemporary Church Frances Mackenney-Jeffs, 2021-01-29 Even today there is still an inherent conflict between the way the Gospels speak about disability and the attitude of the Church This book seeks to challenge the assumptions which still exist about disability assumptions which are reflected within the Church Blending theory anthropology theology pastoral concerns and the lived experience of people with disabilities Reconceptualising Disability for the Contemporary Church offers an important and thoughtful challenge to the contemporary Church      The Social Contexts of Disability Ministry Albert A. Herzog, 2017-09-29 This book provides pastors seminarians and interested laity with the background necessary to understand the need for disability ministry and the contexts out of which the church s ministry among people with disabilities must emerge This is true not only for descriptions of ministries over the past sixty years but also the challenges disability poses for biblical studies church history Christian theology and ethics Insights are gained not only from mainstream secular and religious sources but from evangelical and other conservative materials The blending of items from different religious resources reveals just how ubiquitous disability is and the need for disability ministry now and for many years into the future The book s format is such that either it can serve as a text for courses on disability ministry or individual chapters can be employed in various courses on selected topics in biblical studies history theology and ethics Pastors and lay leaders will enjoy the depth of coverage for each topic This is a book about a serious subject for serious readers Its materials are designed to inform stimulate and promote disability ministry as a topic worthy of serious study Including People with Disabilities in Faith Communities Erik W. People with Disabilities Megan Stephens,2009 The Disabled God Nancy L. Eiesland,1994-09-01 Draws on themes of the disability rights movement to identify people with disabilities as members of a socially disadvantaged minority group rather than as individuals who need to adjust Highlights the hidden history of people with disabilities in church and society Proclaiming the emancipatory presence of the disabled God the author maintains the vital importance of the relationship between Christology and social change Eiesland contends that in the Eucharist Christians encounter the disabled God and may participate in new imaginations of wholeness and new embodiments of justice From Otherness to Openness Jennie Weiss Block,1997 Disability, Society and Theology Samuel Kabue,Esther Mombo,2011-12-29 Disability Society and Theology Voices from Africa is the result of a workshop which brought together African theologians persons with disabilities and disability expertise in the Region to prepare resource materials to enrich the disability study process in the context of the Africa region The book is in six parts and includes contributions from scholars across the continent The parts are Disability Theology Issue to Debate The Able Disabled and the Disabled Church The Churchs Response to Disability
