Cork Memory Step:

A Brief Examination of the Bishop of Cork's Discourse Country Curate, 1714 Archaeology and Created Memory Paul A. Shackel, 2000-10-31 The findings at archaeological sites in Harpers Ferry West Virginia are examined by Shackel U Maryland College Park to demonstrate how interest groups created an idyllic past to present to the visiting public The shorter 52 pages of two sections describes Harpers Ferry during the Civil War Section two on rebuilding Harpers Ferry after the war examines issues of race tourism economic conditions the brewery industry the boardinghouse community and the creation of memory by Victorian citizens Although the lives of wealthy residents are chronicled Shackel uses special care to recreate the history of the poor who left less evidence for the archaeologist to interpret Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Memory Ireland Oona Frawley, 2012-03-29 In the second volume of a series that will ultimately include four the authors consider Irish diasporic memory and memory practices While the Irish diaspora has become the subject of a wide range of scholarship there has been little work focused on its relationship to memory The first half of the volume asks how diasporic memory functions in different places and times and what forms it takes on As an island nation with a history of emigration Ireland has developed a rich diasporic cultural memory one that draws on multiple traditions and historiographies of both home and away Native traditions are not imported wholesale but instead develop their own curious hybridity reflecting the nature of emigrant memory that absorbs new ways of thinking about home How do immigrants remember their homeland How do descendants of immigrants remember a land they rarely visit How does diasporic memory pass through families and how is it represented in cultural forms such as literature festivals and souvenirs In its second half this volume shifts its attention to the concept of memory practices ways of cultural remembering that result from and are shaped by particular cultural forms Many of these cultural forms embody memory materially through language music and photography and because of their distinctive expressions of culture give rise to distinctive memory practices Gathering the leading voices in Irish studies this volume opens new pathways into the body of Irish cultural memory demonstrating time and again the ways in which memory is supported by the negotiations of individuals within wider cultural contexts Contributors include Aidan Arrowsmith Hasia Diner Joep Leerssen Paul Muldoon Nuala N Dhomhnaill

Of Memory and the Misplaced Sarah O'Brien, 2024-01-02 What can the life writing of post famine Irish immigrants tell us about Irish diasporic memory Of Memory and the Misplaced considers the endurance and nature of Irish American memory across the twentieth century Guided by 30 memoirs written between 1900 and 1970 Sarah O'Brien shows the prevalence of intimate and taboo themes in ordinary immigrants writing such as domestic violence same sex love and famine induced trauma Importantly Of Memory and the Misplaced critiques the role of the Irish landscape as a site of memory and shows how the interiority of the domestic world has provided Irish women with the language needed to reclaim their own lives Combining literary and historical theory Of Memory and the Misplaced highlights voices that have traditionally been silenced and offers a rare and unexplored collection of primary source autobiographical texts to better understand the experiences of Irish immigrants in the United States

The Artist and Academia Helen Phelan, Graham F. Welch, 2021-03-29 The Artist and Academia explores the relationship between artistic and academic ways of knowing Historically these have often been presented as opposites the former characterized as passionate and intuitive and the latter portrayed as systematic and rigorous Recent scholarship presents a more complex picture Artistic knowledge demands high levels of skill and rigor while academic research requires creativity and innovative thinking This edited collection brings together leading artists and scholars as well as artist scholars to offer a variety of philosophical educational experiential reflexive and imaginative perspectives on the artist and academia The contributions include in depth scholarly discussions on the nature of knowledge and creativity as well as personal artistic statements from musicians dancers actors and writers Additionally it explores both the mediational and subversive spaces created by the meeting of artistic and academic traditions While the book addresses global themes by global writers its core case study is an educational experiment called the Irish World Academy of Music and Dance at the University of Limerick in Ireland Established in 1994 it set out to reconfigure the place of the artist in the context of contemporary higher education The material is clustered into three parts Part One and Part Two explore the artist as mediator educator and subversive in academia Grounded in close to practice research Part Three concludes the volume with a set of case studies from the Irish World Academy Artistic and academic knowledge come together in this unique set of pieces to explore the development of more inclusive and imaginative pedagogical values Stepping Stones, 1928
