Darcy Cresswell:

D'Arcy Cresswell Roderick Finlayson, 1972 Bloomsbury South Peter Simpson, 2016-07-20 A vibrant portrait of New Zealand's art scene in mid-century Christchurch. Explore the interconnected lives and legacies of artists, writers, and musicians who shaped Christchurch's cultural identity from 1933 to 1953. Peter Simpson delves into the fertile period when figures like Rita Angus, Colin McCahon, Ngaio Marsh, and Douglas Lilburn forged a unique blend of European modernism and New Zealand nationalism. Discover the untold stories behind the Caxton Press, the Little Theatre, and the influential journal Landfall, revealing how these institutions fostered a thriving artistic community. This book is for readers interested in New Zealand art and literary history. Regional cultural studies. Biographies of influential artists and writers. Uncover a fascinating chapter in New Zealand's past where the arts flourished against a backdrop of war and social change. Downfall Paul Diamond, 2022-11-10 In 1920, New Zealanders were shocked by the news that the brilliant, well-connected mayor of genteel Whanganui had shot a young gay poet, D'Arcy Cresswell, who was blackmailing him. They were then riveted by the trial that followed. Mackay was sentenced to hard labour and later left the country only to be shot by a police sniper during street unrest in Berlin during the rise of the Nazis. Mackay had married into Whanganui high society, and the story has long been the town's dark secret. The outcome of years of digging by historian Paul Diamond: this book shines a clear light on the vengeful impulses behind the blackmail and Mackay's ruination. The cast of this tale includes the Prince of Wales, the president of the RSA, Sir Robert Stout, Blanche Baughan, even Lady Ottoline Morrell. But it is much more than an extraordinary story of scandal. At its heart, the Mackay affair reveals the perilous existence of homosexual men and how society conspired to control and punish them. Global Modernists on Modernism Alys Moody, Stephen J. Ross, 2020-01-23 Winner of the Modernist Studies Association (MSA) Edited Volume Prize. Bringing together works by writers from sub-Saharan Africa, Turkey, central Europe, the Muslim world, Asia, South America, and Australia, many translated into English for the first time. This is the first collection of statements on modernism by writers, artists, and practitioners from across the world. Annotated throughout, the texts are supported by critical essays from leading modernist scholars exploring major issues in the contemporary study of global modernism. Global Modernists on Modernism is an essential resource for students and scholars of modernism and world literature and one that opens up a dazzling new array of perspectives on the field. THE INDIAN LISTENER All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi, 1942-03-22 The Indian Listener, fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English, published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service, Bombay, started on 22 December 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in English, which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927. From 22 August 1937 onwards, it was published by All India Radio, New Delhi. In 1950, it was turned into a weekly journal. Later, The Indian Listener became Akashvani in January 5, 1958. It was made a fortnightly again on July 1, 1983. It used to serve the listener as a Bradshaw of broadcasting and give the listener the useful information in an interesting manner about programmes.
