Torn from the Nest

Clorinda Matto de Turner,1999-04-29 Clorinda Matto de Turner was the first Peruvian novelist to command an international reputation and the first to dramatize the exploitation of indigenous Latin American people She believed the task of the novel was to be the photograph that captures the vices and virtues of a people censuring the former with the appropriate moral lesson and paying its homage of admiration to the latter In this tragic tale Clorinda Matto de Turner explores the relationship between the landed gentry and the indigenous peoples of the Andean mountain communities While unfolding as a love story rife with secrets and dashed hopes Torn from the Nest in fact reveals a deep and destructive class disparity and criticizes the Catholic clergy for blatant corruption When Lucia and Don Fernando Marin settle in the small hamlet of Killac the young couple become advocates for the local Indians who are being exploited and oppressed by their priest and governor and by the gentry allied with these two Considered meddling outsiders the couple meet violent resistance from the village leaders who orchestrate an assault on their house and pursue devious and unfair schemes to keep the Indians subjugated As a romance blossoms between the a member of the gentry and the peasant girl that Lucia and Don Fernando have adopted a dreadful secret prevents their marriage and brings to a climax the novel s exposure of degradation they share the same father a parish priest Torn from the Nest was first published in Peru in 1889 amidst much enthusiasm and outrage This fresh translation the first since 1904 preserves one of Peru s most distinctive and compelling voices American Humor Arthur Power

Dudden,1987-04-30 The paramount question answered in this absorbing collection of essays is What s so funny about American humor and why What are American humor s characteristics How have they evolved and displayed themselves Which characteristics are distinctively or even uniquely American Originally appearing as an issue of the American Quarterly these essays take a close look at American humor from revolutionary times to the present day and particularly focus on the neglected trends of the past fifty years Looking at American comic figures as diverse and even surprising as Mark Twain and Richard Nixon at various vehicles for American humor such as comic strips radio and television movies and standup comedians and at different genres of humor including political ethnic and feminist humor this book brings a lively new perspective to the study of American culture The Doonesbury Chronicles G. B. Trudeau,1975 No one can feel the pulse of the world like Garry Trudeau whose satirical look at the 1960 s and early 1970s is a real delight Electronic Hearth

Cecelia Tichi,1992-10-29 We all talk about the tube or box as if television were simply another appliance like the refrigerator or toaster oven But Cecilia Tichi argues that TV is actually an environment a pervasive screen world that saturates almost every aspect of modern life In Electronic Hearth she looks at how that environment evolved and how it in turn has shaped the American experience Tichi explores almost fifty years of writing about television in novels cartoons journalism advertising and critical books and articles to define the role of television in the American consciousness She examines early TV advertising to show how the industry tried to position the new device as not just a gadget but a prestigious new piece of furniture a highly prized addition to the home The television set she writes has emerged as a new electronic hearth the center of family activity John Updike described this primitive appeal of the hearth in Roger's Version Television is its irresistible charm a fire Entering an empty room we turn it on and a talking face flares into being Sitting in front of the TV Americans exist in a safety zone free from the hostility and violence of the outside world She also discusses long standing suspicions of TV viewing its often solitary almost autoerotic character its supposed numbing of the minds and imagination of children and assertions that watching television drugs the minds of Americans Television has been seen as treacherous territory for public figures from generals to presidents where satire and broadcast journalism often deflate their authority And the print culture of journalism and book publishing has waged a decades long war of survival against it only to see new TV generations embrace both the box and the book as a part of their cultural world In today's culture she writes we have become teleconscious seeing for example real life being certified through television as seen on TV and television constantly ratified through its universal presence in art movies music comic strips fabric prints and even references to TV on TV Ranging far beyond the bounds of the broadcast industry Tichi provides a history of contemporary American culture a culture defined by the television environment Intensively researched and insightfully written The Electronic Hearth offers a new understanding of a critical but much maligned aspect of modern life

What Is It, Tink, Is Pan In Trouble? G. B. Trudeau, 1992 Grab your Dramamine it's Silly Season and the election handicappers are losing their shirts Kudos to Rick Redfern for the first bombshell His evidence that Quayle handlers conspired to silence a federal prisoner causes Dano to wail and editors to bail Out on the campaign trail Mark Slackmeyer tracks His Incumbency causing a stir by serving up accurate if incomprehensible transcripts of primo Bushspeak Meanwhile over in aisle two of the Cosmic Supermarket Jerry Brown Insider has doubled his shelf life by repackaging himself as Jerry Brown Outsider And as Roland and Rick find themselves in the tank for the semi flawed character from Arkansas Look out Mt Rushmore the two Dukes David and Uncle conspire as only distant cousins can Of course things are tough all over as everyone but Poppy has noticed Of the core Doonesbury cast in What Is It Tink Is Pan in Trouble only one has a job that requires getting out of bed As Mike enters his second year of full unemployment and B D realizes he needs to get a post Ground War life ex nanny Zonker finesses the recession by returning home to his terrified parents *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
