Dark Valleys:

Dark Valleys Gary Dobbs, 2016-10-31 Dark Valleys collects together more than a century of murders that took place in and around the valleys of South Wales. These horrific crimes shocked not only Wales but also made national headlines. Although treated with compassion and sensitivity by the Welsh author and crime historian Gary M Dobbs, these true stories are often gruesome and harrowing with no details spared in chronicling what were truly terrible events. The reasons behind such violent crime are explored and we see the changing attitudes of society to crimes fuelled by alcohol, poverty, passion or increasingly so in modern times, drug abuse. The book also highlights the changing procedures of both the police and the courts in dealing with such crimes. It contains stories of hardship and incredible poverty and of ordinary lives suddenly transformed by brutal and sickening violence. Many of the killings contained within these pages remain unsolved, such as the 1862 Tyntyla Farm Murder and the 1993 execution style killings of Megan and Harry Tooze. The latter case remains one of South Wales' most infamous unsolved murders. Along the way we look at the case of Rhoda Willis, the first woman to be hanged at Cardiff Prison and many, many more gruesome but fascinating cases. In all cases, the author has painstakingly collected together every available piece of evidence to provide as clear a picture as possible. Gary Dobbs carefully researched, well illustrated and enthralling text will appeal to anyone interested in the darker side of history.

Dark Valleys and Sunlit Mountains A.J. Lennox, 2014-05-01 Dark Valleys and Sunlit Mountains chronicles one couple's journey through numerous and diverse medical challenges encountered during the latter portion of a 31-year marriage. They took great pleasure in each other's company, extended families, friends, off-shore and domestic travel, summer cabin and boating. The marriage was good for both. Significant changes to her husband's diet following their 1982 marriage improved his overall health status considerably. His decades-long history of petit mal seizures was well monitored and treated with prescription drugs adjusted appropriately by board-certified neurologists. Neither anticipated the events beginning with a seizure incident in May 2007, continuing into 2013. Life became one supreme medical challenge after another, each different, each with its own specific dark valley. Periods with minimal hope, no diagnosis, medical miracles or answers found. He recuperated from each until 2013, slowly regaining strength, mobility and well-being. Each sunlit mountain recovery experience was savored. Plans commenced for more travel. A 2009 successful llistomy procedure mitigated GI bleeds but left Ted unwilling to live despite medical assurances. No carcinoma was present but, refusing to eat, he came home to die, the darkest valley of all. With no medical training, she became the sole 24/1 critical patient caregiver. Pray without ceasing with thanksgiving became the watchword. These trials served to greatly strengthen the wife's life-long trust and faith in God's promises. She discovered a depth of faith heretofore unknown, experienced or even thought possible: learning to trust on an entirely new plane, finding God's comforting peace amidst the depths of human despair. Promises of God's unfailing presence in our lives, never to leave or forsake us to provide our every need, sustained her. In late April 2010, Ted quietly declared for the first time, "It just came to me."
