Dartmoor Walks:

Walks on Dartmoor: Paths and Trackways Michael Caton, 2018-02-20 Twenty eight walks varying in length from 2 to 7 1 2 miles Photographs illustrate many of the features to be seen on the walks Using over sixty years of knowledge of Dartmoor Michael Caton leads you on a series of 28 walks based on paths and trackways over the moor Some of these walks are based on those led by the author for the Dartmoor Preservation Association Many of the walks have not been described in previous guidebooks or are not shown on the OS 1 25 000 map The walks are for those who wish to venture well into the open moor without having to negotiate the rough Dartmoor terrain A section has been included on the origin and history of the tracks including special comment on the route of the well known Abbot s Way There is also a section describing briefly what to see on the walks including prehistoric monuments medieval and later remains such as mining and granite crosses as well as flora and fauna The walks have been arranged in order around the southern and then the northern moor Each walk starts at a suitable parking place The routes are described in detail with appropriate grid references and brief information on the scenery and features to be seen The start of all the walks is shown on an overview map of Dartmoor About half of the routes are circular whereas others are more suited to a linear course The walk descriptions are accompanied by maps in which the route has been sketched out on the appropriate section of the 1 25 000 OS map A separate section gives advice to walkers and explains how to use this guide It also draws attention to safety issues of walking on Dartmoor including the dangers of military firing and adverse weather conditions

South Devon & Dartmoor (Slow Travel) Hilary Bradt, Janice Booth, Gill Campbell, Alistair Campbell, 2024-03-08 This new thoroughly updated third edition of South Devon and Dartmoor is part of Bradt s distinctive Slow Travel series of guides to UK regions offering in depth exploration of one of England s most popular areas Written by resident experts Hilary Bradt the late Janice Booth and Gill and Alistair Campbell it remains the essential companion to discovering not just the obvious and well known sites but also for getting off the beaten track and understanding what makes this gorgeous part of the country tick Much of the information in Bradt s South Devon and Dartmoor has appeared in no other guidebook apart from previous editions of this book as the authors uncover the lesser known charms of the region as well as different aspects of the more popular places from the English Riviera and South Hams to Salcombe and Dartmoor together with colourful characters from the past folk history and literary links from Agatha Christie to Arthur Conan Doyle The guide has a special emphasis on car free travel walking this edition features a revised selection of routes including miles without stiles accessible Dartmoor walks cycling and river boats as well as local buses including the new Dartmoor Explorer service and trains This edition has a stronger emphasis on local food both in markets and when eating out while the authors have updated their hand picked suggestions for places to eat and drink and for accommodation from idyllically located campsites to boutique B learn what really goes on at a wassail gathering find out what you should do if you re harassed by pixies on Dartmoor and discover unique local events like the annual Orange Race held in Totnes Also included are entertaining and informative stories about historical characters and folklore while small and historic village churches with their idiosyncratic saints and intriguing carvings are described in loving detail Walking on Dartmoor John Earle,2002 This handy guidebook contains route descriptions for 45 day walks in the Dartmoor National Park and its surrounding area The walks all vary in length from 2 to 12 miles long and each route is graded by difficulty from easy to moderate or hard Most of the walks are circular with a few longer routes that are linear and involve ascents of tors
