Cultural Impact in the German Context Rebecca Braun, Lyn Marven, 2010 Examines then employs the metaphor of cultural impact in an effort to understand how culture works in the German speaking world How to gauge the impact of cultural products is an old question but bureaucratic agendas such as the one recently implemented in the UK to measure the impact of university research including in German Studies are new Impact is seen as confirming a cultural product's value for society not least in the eyes of cultural funders Yet its use as an evaluative category has been widely criticized by academics Rather than rejecting the concept of impact however this volume employs it as a metaphor to reflect on issues of transmission reception and influence that have always underlain cultural production but have escaped systematic conceptualization It seeks to understand how culture works in the German speaking world how writers and artists express themselves how readers and audiences engage with the resulting products and how academics are drawn to analyze this dynamic process Formulating such questions afresh in the context of German Studies the volume examines both contemporary cultural discourse and the way it evolves more generally It links such topics as authorial intention readerly reception intertextuality and modes of perception to less commonly studied phenomena such as the institutional practices of funding bodies that underpin cultural discourse Contributors David Barnett Laura Bradley Rebecca Braun Sarah Colvin Anne Fuchs Katrin Kohl Karen Leeder Jürgen Luh Jenny McKay Ben Morgan Gunther Nickel Chloe Paver Joanne Sayner Matthew Philpotts Jane Wilkinson Rebecca Braun is Executive Dean of the College of Arts Social Sciences Celtic Studies at the National University of Ireland in Galway and Lyn Marven is Lecturer in German at the University of Liverpool

Canons and Wisdoms Albert Cook, 2016-11-11 In Canons and Wisdoms Albert Cook addresses what is arguable the most profound question about poetry and literature What is its human value Cook claims that the value lies in the special yield of wisdom rich full and not available in other forms of human discourse This somewhat traditional position is reinforced by the related arguments of such philosophers as Adorno and Heidegger and by other works in Renaissance poetry and modern poetry and fiction where the sense of the work becomes clearer when it is seen in the light of such a question Cook addresses what can be claimed for poetry and literature after all due allowance has been made for the relativity of canons the subjectivity of the literary experience and the subtle and comprehensive effects of received expectations Such questions have dominated recent discussions about the value of literature The nature of all human utterance argues for its being aimed at social inclusion formalized as a canon even though such a notion must remain ideal Canons and Wisdoms is an eloquent and original contribution to the ongoing debate about the canon It is the work of an experienced erudite and individualistic scholar working at the intersection of philosophy and literary theory and criticism

Italo Calvino and Classics, 2024-12-23 In his Memos for the Next Millennium the Italian writer Italo Calvino identified five literary qualities that should accompany writers and readers into the literature of the future lightness quickness exactitude visibility multiplicity Though never finished the

Memos continue to inspire readers and scholars This volume turns three of Calvino's poetic qualities lightness quickness multiplicity into powerful hermeneutic strategies for reading ancient and late antique texts ranging widely from Homer's Iliad to Claudian's carmina minora It is the first book to read ancient literature through the lens of Calvino's Memos thus fostering a new discussion of the interactions between modern and ancient texts as well as between methodologies The Art of Memory Jewish Museum (New York, N.Y.),1994 We have chosen to investigate the reasons why memorials have been built to look at whose memory is being honored and to examine the responses to these memorials The creation of an exhibition and the production of this book presented the opportunity for an analytic perspective In the process we have neither created another memorial nor have we solely explored the field of Holocaust art Rather we have attempted to reveal the nature of the creative process through the discussion of specific examples of a number of memorials and we have tried to understand their meaning and the reaction to them in the many places where they exist Preface Vulnerability Silvia Bonacchi,2024-06-17 This collection presents studies on a wide range of discursive positions marked by vulnerability and investigates the functions of self positioning actors as vulnerable in contemporary social discourses As a phenomenon that manifests itself in different social arenas vulnerable positions and instances of self positioning indicate various crisis situations on a broad spectrum of phenomena of manifestations and implications Starting from the assumption that vulnerable self positioning and stance taking is manifested at the level of discursive practices performative processes and material achievements the contributors describe a series of mechanisms of staging vulnerability in a wide range of manifestations among them physical psychological social sexual and gender linguistic and institutional vulnerability

Writing Emotions Ingeborg Jandl,Susanne Knaller,Sabine Schönfellner,Gudrun Tockner,2018-07-15 After a long period of neglect emotions have become an important topic within literary studies This collection of essays stresses the complex link between aesthetic and non aesthetic emotional components and discusses emotional patterns by focusing on the practice of writing as well as on the impact of such patterns on receptive processes Readers interested in the topic will be presented with a concept of aesthetic emotions as formative both within the writing and the reading process Essays ranging in focus from the beginning of modern drama to digital formats and theoretical questions examine examples from English German French Russian and American literature Contributors include Angela Locatelli Vera N nning and Gesine Lenore Schiewer

Constructive Destruction Richard T. Gray,2012-01-02 The study presents a thorough investigation of Kafka's aphoristic writings examining them in terms of the history of the aphorism in Germany and paying special regard to Kafka's contemporary Austrian aphorists Emphasis is placed on the role of the aphorism in the development of Kafka's literary creativity Aphoristic discourse presented itself to Kafka as a possible manner of resolving specific conflicts in his life and art above all the crisis of communication the individuality of the self Aphoristic structure provides the transitional link between Kafka's early perspectivistic narratives and the parables of the later period Practice and Progress Karl Siegfried

Weimar, Werner Hoffmeister, 1963      The Camp Colman Hogan, Marta Marin-Dòmine, 2007 The camp is nothing if not diverse in kind scope and particularity in sociological and juridical configuration in texture iconography and political import Adjectives of camp specificity embrace a spectrum from extermination and concentration to detention migration deportation and refugee camps And while the geographic range covered by contributors is hardly global it is broad Chile Rwanda Canada the US Central Europe Morocco Algeria South Africa France and Spain And yet is to so characterize the camp to run the risk of diffusing what in origin is a concentration into a paratactical series of oidentity particularisms While The Camp does not seek to antithetically promulgate a universalist vision it does aim to explore the imbrication of the particular and the universal to analyze the structure of a camp or camps and to call attention the role of the listener in the construction of the testimony For by naming what cannot be said is not every narrative of internment and exclusion a potential site of agency articulating the inner splitting of language that Giorgio Agamben defines as the locus of testimony oeto bear witness is to place oneself in one TM s own language in the position of those who have lost it to establish oneself in a living language as if it were dead or in a dead language as if it were living      Contemporary Jewish Writing Andrea Reiter, 2013-11-12 This book examines Jewish writers and intellectuals in Austria analyzing filmic and electronic media alongside more traditional publication formats over the last 25 years Beginning with the Waldheim affair and the rhetorical response by the three most prominent members of the survivor generation Leon Zelman Simon Wiesenthal and Bruno Kreisky author Andrea Reiter sets a complicated standard for who is Jewish and what constitutes a Jewish response She reformulates the concepts of religious and secular Jewish cultural expression cutting across gender and Holocaust studies The work proceeds to questions of enacting or performing identity especially Jewish identity in the Austrian setting looking at how these Jewish writers and filmmakers in Austria perform their Jewishness not only in their public appearances and engagements but also in their works By engaging with novels poems and films this volume challenges the dominant claim that Jewish culture in Central Europe is almost exclusively borne by non Jews and consumed by non Jewish audiences establishing a new counter discourse against resurging anti Semitism in the media      Geographische Zeitschrift, 1897      Der hohe Norden im Natur- und Menschenleben Georg Hartwig, 1871      Uebersicht über die prähistorischen Funde im Stadt- und Landkreise Elbing (Reg.-Bez.
