staging of a new play by Peter Stanhope The hill seems to reside at the crux of time as characters from the past appear and perhaps at a doorway to the beyond as characters are alternately summoned heavenwards or descend into hell Pauline Anstruther the heroine of the novel lives in fear of meeting her own doppelganger which has appeared to her throughout her life But Stanhope in an action central to the author's own theology takes the burden of her fears upon himself Williams called this The Doctrine of Substituted Love and enables Pauline at long last to face her true self Williams drew this idea from the biblical verse Ye shall bear one another's burdens And so Stanhope does take the weight with no surreptitious motive in the most affecting scene in the novel And Pauline liberated is able to accept truth On the other hand Lawrence Wentworth a local historian finding his desire for Adela Hunt to be unrequited falls in love instead with a spirit form of Adela which seems to represent a kind of extreme self love on his part As he isolates himself more and more with this insubstantial figure and dreams of descending a silver rope into a dark pit Wentworth begins the descent into Hell HARROWING of HELL Christ in Limbo and Descent into Hell redirect here For the novel by Charles Williams see Descent into Hell novel For the 8th century Anglo Saxon liturgical play see Harrowing of Hell drama *The Descent into Hell, a poem.
