Descriptions, Translations and the Caribbean Rosanna Masiola, Renato Tomei, 2016-10-12 This book offers a new perspective on the role played by colonial descriptions and translation of Caribbean plants in representations of Caribbean culture Through thorough examination of Caribbean phytonyms in lexicography colonization history songs and translation studies the authors argue that the Westernisation of vernacular phytonyms while systematizing the nomenclature blurred and erased the cultural tradition of Caribbean plants and medicinal herbs Means of transmission and preservation of this oral culture was in the plantation songs and herb vendor songs Musical creativity is a powerful form of resistance as in the case of Reggae music and the rise of Rastafarians and Bob Marley's untranslatable lyrics This book will be of interest to scholars of Caribbean studies and to linguists interested in pushing the current Eurocentric boundaries of translation studies

Jean François Lyotard: Politics and history of philosophy Victor E. Taylor, Gregg Lambert, 2006
Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz, Lewis L.B. Fried, 2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida's work and scholarship about his work It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida's Master's thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy
Greek Literature in the Roman Period and in Late Antiquity Gregory Nagy, 2014-01-14 Edited with an introduction by an internationally recognized scholar this nine volume set represents the most exhaustive collection of essential critical writings in the field from studies of the classic works to the history of their reception Bringing together the articles that have shaped modern classical studies the set covers Greek literature in all its genres including history poetry prose oratory and philosophy from the 6th century BC through the Byzantine era Since the study of Greek literature encompasses the roots of all major modern humanities disciplines the collection also includes seminal articles exploring the Greek influence on their development Each volume concludes with a list of recommendations for further reading This collection is an important resource for students and scholars of comparative literature English history philosophy theater and rhetoric as well as the classics Italian Literary Icons Gian-Paolo Biasin, 2014-07-14 Focusing on nineteenth and twentieth century Italian literature Gian Paolo Biasin explores a series of challenges posited for literary criticism by the success of semiotics testing theoretical concepts not so much on theoretical grounds as in their practical application to literary texts from the high Romantic lyric of Ugo Foscolo to the postmodern cosmicomic tales of Italo Calvino Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Hopkins, the Self, and God Walter J.

Ong,1993-12-15 General Manley Hopkins was not alone among Victorians in his attention to the human self and to the particularities of things in the world around him where he savoured the selving or inscape of each individual existent But the intensity of his interest in the self as a focus of exuberant joy as well as sometimes of anguish both in his poetry and his prose marks him out as unique even among his contemporaries In these studies Professor Ong explores some previously unexamined reasons for Hopkins uniqueness including unsuspected connections between nineteenth century sensibility and certain substructures of Christian belief Hopkins was less interested in self discovery or self concept than in what might be called the confrontational or obtrusive self the I ultimately nameless that each person wakes up to in the morning to find simply there directly or indirectly present in every moment of consciousness Hopkins concern with the self grew out of a nineteenth century sensibility which was to give birth to modernity and postmodernity and which in his case as a Jesuit was especially nourished by the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius Loyola concerned at root with the self free choice and free self giving It was also nourished by the Christian belief in the Three Persons in One God central to Hopkins theology courses and personal speculation and very notable in the Spiritual Exercises Hopkins appropriated and intensified his Christian beliefs with new nineteenth century awareness he writes of the selving in God of the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit Hopkins pastoral work particularly in the confessional dealing directly with other selves in terms of their free decisions also gave further force to his preoccupation with the self and freedom What I do he writes is me Besides being concerned with the self the most particular of particulars and the paradigm of all sense of presence the Spiritual Exercises in many ways attend to other particularities with an insistence that has drawn lengthy and rather impassioned commentary from the postmodern literary theorist Roland Barthes Hopkins distinctive and often precocious attention to the self and freedom puts him theologically far ahead of many of his fellow Catholics and other fellow Victorians and gives him his permanent relevance to the modern and postmodern world Semiotica ,1989 Jacques Lacan (Volume II) (RLE: Lacan) Michael

Clark,2014-01-23 This bibliography in two volumes originally published in 1988 lists and describes works by and about Jacques Lacan published in French English and seven other languages including Japanese and Russian It incorporates and corrects where necessary all information from earlier published bibliographies of Lacan s work Also included as background works are books and essays that discuss Lacan in the course of a more general study as well as all relevant items in various bibliographic sources from many fields The Time of the Sign Dean MacCannell,Juliet Flower MacCannell,1982 H.S. ,2004 Congress Proceedings XIII, March 1994, University of Cape Town ,1995 The French Review James Frederick
