Desert Barbarian:

Cultural Identity in the Roman Empire Dr Joanne Berry, Joanne Berry, Ray Laurence, 2002-09-11 This provocative and often controversial volume examines concepts of ethnicity citizenship and nationhood to determine what constituted cultural identity in the Roman Empire The contributors draw together the most recent research and use diverse theoretical and methodological perspectives from archaeology classical studies and ancient history to challenge our basic assumptions of Romanization and how parts of Europe became incorporated into a Roman culture Cultural Identity in the Roman Empire breaks new ground arguing that the idea of a unified and easily defined Roman culture is over simplistic and offering alternative theories and models This well documented and timely book presents cultural identity throughout the Roman empire as a complex and diverse issue far removed from the previous notion of a dichotomy between the Roman invaders and the Barbarian conquered Wearing Chinese Glasses Greg Bissky, 2011-07-18 Making Sense Ralf Hertel, 2021-07-26

Fiction is fascinating All it provides us with is black letters on white pages yet while we read we do not have the impression that we are merely perceiving abstract characters Instead we see the protagonists before our inner eye and hear their voices Descriptions of sumptuous meals make our mouths water we feel physically repelled by depictions of violence or are aroused by the erotic details of sexual conquests We submerge ourselves in the fictional world that no longer stays on the paper but comes to life in our imagination Reading turns into an out of the body experience or rather an in another body experience for we perceive the portrayed world not only through the protagonist's eyes but also through his ears nose tongue and skin In other words we move through the literary text as if through a virtual reality How does literature achieve this trick How does it turn mere letters into vividly experienced worlds This study argues that techniques of sensuous writing contribute decisively to bringing the text to life in the reader's imagination In detailed interpretations of British novels of the 1980s and 1990s by writers such as John Berger John Banville Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson or J M Coetzee it uncovers literary strategies for turning the sensuous experience into words and for conveying it to the reader demonstrating how we make sense in and of literature Both readers interested in the contemporary novel and in the sensuousness of the reading experience will profit from this innovative study that not only analyses the interest of contemporary authors in the senses but also pin points literary entry points for the sensuous force of reading Twentieth-century Romance and Gothic
