Rommel's Army in the Desert Alistair Smith, 2013-02-19 When German General Rommel and the lead elements of what would become the Afrika Korps landed in Libya in February 1941 nobody could have foreseen the legendary status they would achieve Sent to support the faltering Italians they were eventually able to drive the Allies to the very gates of Egypt Fighting over hostile and rugged terrain often outnumbered and outgunned they were only finally undone by their defeat at El Alamein and Allied landings to their rear This collection of photographs is taken from the albums of three members of the vaunted Afrika Korps For the first time the daily reality of the North African campaign can be seen from the German point of view With numerous photographs of vehicles and men at work this collection paints a portrait of

This they achieved at the Battle of El Alamein 1942 and the order of battle for the British and Dominion forces is detailed in full. The difficulties of desert warfare and the type of equipment and uniforms are also discussed      United States Army
