Desert Orchid:

Sixty Years of Jump Racing Robin Oakley, 2017-03-09 Robin Oakley brings alive the colourful world of those who ride and train jumping horses With elegant production and gripping images Sixty Years of Jump Racing chronicles the social and economic changes which have brought the sport s ups and downs like the development of sponsorships and syndicate ownership the near loss of the Grand National the growing domination of the Cheltenham Festival and the growth of all weather racing to meet the bookies demands for betting shop fodder Pace and colour is provided by stories of the horses who have been taken to the heart of racing crowds like the Irish trained hurdler Istabraq and Best Mate the three times winner of the Cheltenham Gold Cup for England Famous rivalries and memorable races are re lived and key victories revisited in portraits of and interviews with the owners jockeys and trainers who have dominated the sport The emphasis will be largely on the past fifty years from Arkle to Tony McCoy but a significant introduction by Edward Gillespie encapsulates the past history of what was previously known as National Hunt Racing and sets the stories in context Ordinary Dogs Eileen Battersby, 2011-11-01 Eileen Battersby is the chief literature critic of The Irish Times and is in the words of John Banville the finest fiction critic we have But her first full length book is not about international literature or the state of the novel It is about dogs Two dogs in particular with the unlikely names of Bilbo and Frodo She adopted the first from a horrible dog pound and the second decided he liked her and moved in to join the family She was in her very early twenties an intensely serious student and runner who had just moved to Ireland from California The dogs became her most loyal companions for over twenty years witnesses to an often difficult human life and more important to her than most other humans This book is about two animals with personalities emotions and prejudices It is unlike any other book ever written about dogs It is not sentimental or twee Battersby became intimately involved in the lives of these intelligent shrewd creatures and brings them to life with rare passion and insight She writes honestly and movingly about the reasons why for certain people especially women there is more integrity in the mysterious relationship with a mammal who cannot speak than there is in most of the relationships that human society has to offer Desert Orchid (The Story Of A Champion). Jonathan Powell, 1991

Desert Orchid J. Powell, 1990-01-01 GREBO! Rich Deakin, 2021-10-07 West Midlands 1980s home to heavy metal Black Sabbath and Judas Priest are household names but over the smoking chimneys and factory yards something new and equally ugly forms Grebo was a media constructed music genre that even today sends a shudder down the spines of discerning music fans and critics A homegrown proto grunge counterpart to the likes of Butthole Surfers Mudhoney early Nirvana Alice In Chains and Soundgarden in the US grebo was a British phenomenon that drew on an eclectic range of influences from punk 60s garage and psychedelia through to 70s heavy rock and thrash metal It foreshadowed rave culture and was steeped in class politics GAYE BYKERS ON ACID and CRAZYHEAD hailed from Leicester They were not the first bands to be labelled grebo but they were the most unashamedly unkempt and came to be considered its greatest exponents

They were a burst of dirty thunder and almost no one liked them Based on interviews with band members friends fans and roadies this book is an uncompromising history of an overlooked music scene Rich Deakin charts its course via the changing fortunes of the Bykers and Crazyhead taking us on the booze filled tour buses behind the dodgy deals and onto the international stage and back again with a pitstop for a rock movie that swallows lots of money Their careers were short but the two bands managed to shake up the UK indie scene and along the way became Britain s unlikely ambassadors of rock following the collapse of Soviet Russia Strap yourself in for a rocket ride of a book This is GREBO the complete loud and lousy story Tales From the Turf Robin Oakley,2013-11-07 Britain and Ireland s Top 100 Racehorses of All Time author Robin Oakley takes us on a canter through the colourful world of horseracing Join him as he shares evocative personal stories of being there at racing legends key moments such as Frankie Dettori riding seven winners in a day at Ascot He debates whether jockeys are sportsmen or masochists jump jockeys can expect a fall on average every 13 rides and reminisces about unusual achievements including trainer Sirrell Griffith s Cheltenham Gold Cup win after milking his 100 cows that morning Tales From the Turf is an extraordinary account from the Spectator s long running Turf columnist and a man for whom horseracing is a lifetime s passion Country Life ,1990-03 Indian Gaming ,2007-07 Chronicle of the Horse ,1991
