Contemporary Lesley Jackson, 1998-05-03 An exploration of the style that dominated 1950s architecture and design This book is the first to explore fully the so called contemporary style that dominated architecture and design from the late 1940s to the end of the 1950s. It was an era of optimism and confidence where new ideas in architecture and design flourished alongside the emergent consumer culture. Emanating mainly from the USA, the contemporary style was fresh and liberating, manifesting itself in the picture window and the open plan in new forms of furniture from Scandinavia and stylish light fittings from Italy, and most tellingly in the contemporary kitchen with its fitted units and mod con appliances. This book examines the fresh and liberated design ideas of this buoyant era with an acute eye and open mind. Liberty and Co. in the Fifties and Sixties Anna Buruma, 2009. During the frugal 1950s, Liberty Co. rather cautiously dipped its toes in the waters of modern design, choosing to promote avant garde items alongside its more traditional products so as not to scare away longstanding customers. Then came the cultural and fashion revolution, and almost overnight the emporium of traditional style found itself not just at one of the best spots in London but at the very epicentre of the world of fashion. Carnaby Street in the 60s, Liberty's was once again at the cutting edge, leading several fashion trends such as the revivals of Art Nouveau, Orientalism and Art Deco, and the Liberty textile design studio was used extensively by such high profile fashion names as Jean Muir, Biba and Yves Saint Laurent. Packed full with illustrations from the Liberty archive and contemporary fashion photography, this gem of a book provides a real insight into this legendary emporium at a significant point in Liberty's history, a time of great change and renewal. BOOK JACKET The Australian Dream Judith O'Callaghan, 1993. Fifties in Australia. Dress, Architectural vision, Gardens, Emerging crafts, movement. Fabulous Fifties Shelia Steinberg, Kate E. Dooner, 1993. Modern living in the 1950s, including clothing, furniture, lamps, clocks, textiles, jewelry, glassware etc. is shown in over 770 color photos that display this lively period in all its fantastic glory. Here are Hawaiian shirts, poodle skirts, vinyl handbags, gabardine jackets, rayon dresses, and more, nearly every aspect of modern living in the 1950s that is avidly collected today. Italian Lighting Design 1945-2000 Alberto Bassi, 2004. Following World War II, Italian industrial designers began to earn worldwide acclaim for their lamp and lighting designs; since then the country has produced landmark models that have become classics of modern and contemporary design, such as lamps by the Castiglioni brothers and Artemide. This richly illustrated book documents the evolution of Italian lamp and lighting design from 1945 to the end of the twentieth century. A collection of essays by design historian Alberto Bassi, organized in seventeen sections, traces the industry's critical and commercial successes and the unique relationship between tradition, decorative quality, technology and production. Included are profiles of individual designers such as the Castiglioni brothers, Vico Magistretti, Gino Sarfatti and Pietro Chiesa, and manufacturers such as Flos, Fontana Arte and Luceplan. The book reproduces more than 300 archival and new photographs, original advertisements, product displays and installations of lights and lighting. This volume is the second in a new series inaugurated by ABC Twentieth Century Graphic Design, aimed not just at a traditional readership of architects but also at people working in the field of graphics and students at the new faculties of design. Design of the Fifties in Croatia

Adopting the Track of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Design In The Fifties

In a world eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate conversation, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony produced by the published term usually diminish in to the background, eclipsed by the relentless sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Design In The Fifties a stunning literary value filled with organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts readers on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed songs and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of this touching assessment, we shall examine the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
