Design And Destiny The Making Of The Tucker Automobile:

Design and Destiny Philip S. Egan, 2003-01-01 Revised edition of the design and manufacture of 1948 Tucker Automobile told by one of the car's designers Illustrated with exclusive photos of actual design and manufacture of the rare car Preston Tucker and His Battle to Build the Car of Tomorrow Steve Lehto, Jay Leno, 2016-07-01 A 2017 Michigan Notable Book After World War II the American automobile industry was reeling Having spent years building tanks and airplanes for the army the car companies would need years more to retool their production to meet the demands of the American public for whom they had not made any cars since 1942 And then in stepped Preston Tucker This salesman extraordinaire from Ypsilanti Michigan had built race cars before the war and had designed prototypes for the military during it Now gathering a group of brilliant automotive designers engineers and promoters he announced the creation of a revolutionary new car the Tucker 48 the first car in almost a decade to be built fresh from the ground up Tucker's car would include ingenious advances in design and engineering that other car companies could not match With a rear engine rear wheel drive a safety glass windshiel that would pop out in case of an accident a padded dashboard independent suspension and automatic transmission it would be more attractive and aerodynamic and safer than any other car on the road But as the public eagerly awaited Tucker's car of tomorrow powerful forces in Washington were trying to bring him down An SEC commissioner with close ties to Detroit's Big Three automakers deliberately leaked information about an investigation the agency was conducting suggesting that Tucker was bilking investors with a massive fraud scheme Headlines accused him a perpetrating a hoax and claimed that his cars weren't real and his factory was a sham In fact the Tucker 48 sedan was genuine and everyone who saw it was impressed by what this upstart carmaker had achieved But the SEC's investigation had compounded the company's financial problems and management conflicts and a superior product was not enough to keep Tucker's dream afloat Here Steve Lehto tackles the story of Tucker's amazing rise and tragic fall relying on a huge trove of documents that has been used by no other writer to date It is the first comprehensive authoritative account of Tucker's magnificent car and his battles with the government And in this book Lehto finally answers the questions automobile aficionados have wondered about for decades Exactly how and why was the production of such an innovative car killed
